Storytelling in Christian Art from Giotto to Donatello Jules Lubbock, 2006-01-01 Recounting the biblical stories through visual images was the most prestigious form of commission for a Renaissance artist In this book Jules Lubbock examines some of the most famous of these pictorial narratives by artists of the caliber of Giovanni Pisano Duccio Giotto Ghiberti Brunelleschi Donatello and Masaccio He explains how these artists portrayed the major biblical events such as the Sacrifice of Isaac the Annunciation the Feast of Herod and the Trial and Passion of Jesus so as to be easily recognizable and at the same time to capture our attention and imagination for long enough to enable us to search for deeper meanings He provides evidence showing that the Church favoured the production of images that lent themselves to being read and interpreted in this way and he describes the works themselves to demonstrate how the pleasurable activity of deciphering these meanings can work in practice This book is richly illustrated and many of its photographs have been specially taken to show how the paintings and relief sculptures appear in the settings for which they were originally designed. Seen from these viewpoints they become more readily intelligible. Likewise the starting point and the originality of Lubbock's interpretations lies in his accepting that these works of art were primarily designed to help people to reflect upon the ethical and religious significance of the biblical stories. The early Renaissance artists developed their highly innovative techniques to further these objectives not as ends in themselves. Thus the book aims to appeal to students, scholars and the general public who are interested in Renaissance art and to those with a religious interest in biblical imagery. Tyndale, 2021-02-23 What distinguishes this edition of the New Living Translation of the Bible are the line drawings by Dina Danosa of plants, animals, landscapes and people mentioned in Scripture. Lorenzo Ghiberti's Gates of Paradise Amy R. Bloch, 2016-02-09 This book examines the heretofore unsuspected complexity of Lorenzo Ghiberti's sculpted representations of Old Testament narratives in his Gates of Paradise 1425-52, the second set of doors he made for the Florence Baptistery and a masterpiece of Italian Renaissance sculpture. One of the most intellectually engaged and well-read artists of his age, Ghiberti found inspiration in ancient and medieval texts, many of which he and his contacts in Florence's humanist community shared, read and discussed. He was fascinated by the science of vision, by the functioning of nature and above all by the origins and history of art. These unusually well-defined intellectual interests reflected in his famous Commentaries shaped his approach in the Gates. Through the selection, imaginative interpretation and arrangement of biblical episodes, Ghiberti fashioned multi-textured narratives that explore the human condition and express his ideas on a range of social, political, artistic and philosophical issues. KJV Standard Lesson Commentary® 2020-2021 Standard Publishing, 2020-06-01 As the world's most popular annual Bible commentary for more than two decades, Standard Lesson Commentary (SLC) provides 52 weeks of study in a single volume and combines thorough Bible study with relevant examples and questions. Vision and Meaning in Ninth-Century Byzantium Leslie Brubaker, 1999-02-25 The Byzantines used imagery to communicate a wide range of issues In the context of Iconoclasm the debate about the legitimacy of religious art conducted between c AD 730 and 843 Byzantine authors themselves claimed that visual images could express certain ideas better than words Vision and Meaning in Ninth Century Byzantium deals with how such visual communication worked and examines the types of messages that pictures could convey in the aftermath of Iconoclasm Its focus is on a deluxe manuscript commissioned around 880 a copy of the fourth century sermons of the Cappadocian church father Gregory of Nazianzus which presented to the Emperor Basil I founder of the Macedonian dynasty by one of the greatest scholars Byzantium ever produced the patriarch Photios The manuscript was lavishly decorated with gilded initials elaborate headpieces and a full page miniature before each of Gregory's sermons Forty six of these including over 200 distinct scenes survive Fewer than half however were directly inspired by the homily that they accompany Instead most function as commentaries on the ninth century court and carefully deconstructed both provide us with information not available from preserved written sources and perhaps more important show us how visual images communicate differently from words
