Vivere E Morire In Terapia Intensiva:

Non-scribal Communication Media in the Bronze Age Aegean and Surrounding Areas Anna Margherita Jasink, Judith Weingarten, Silvia Ferrara, 2018-01-08 This volume is intended to be the first in a series that will focus on the origin of script and the boundaries of non scribal communication media in proto literate and literate societies of the ancient Aegean. Over the last 30 years the domain of scribes and bureaucrats has become much better known. Our goal now is to reach below the lite and scribal levels to interface with non scribal operations conducted by people of the middling sort. Who made these marks and to what purpose? Did they serve private or semi official roles in Bronze Age Aegean society? The comparative study of such practices in the contemporary East Cyprus, Anatolia, the Levant and Egypt can shed light on sub elite activities in the Aegean and also provide evidence for cultural and economic exchange networks.

Gender and the European Union Lucarelli, Sonia, 2014-12-01 Gender discrimination continues to be a reality in several parts of the world, also in Europe. The aim of this book is to provide an overview of both European Union's EU gender policies and gender balance in EU institutions. It does so by looking at gender equality policies and the EU legal system concerning gender equality, women's representation within different institutions and more particularly in the European External Action Service gender rights as a type of human rights and the EU's role in the external promotion of women's rights in third countries. The analysis shows that women's representation in the EU institutions has increased in the last decades and that the EU has strengthened its attention to gender rights in its external relations as well; however, the results of both attempts are far from being fully satisfactory.

The Custodians of the Gift Guido Carlo Pigliasco, 2022-10-21 Emerging from more than two decades of research in the field and in the archives the essays collected here explore the multifaceted topic of the Fijian firewalking ceremony, the vilavilairevo. The collection examines the intersection of the intertwined topics of cultural property reproduction, tradition and change, with issues of post-colonial representation, authenticity and ethnic identity. The essays advance new insights on the tourist gaze and the safeguarding of intangible cultural heritage and pose serious questions regarding the role of digital and social media as tools for preserving cultural legacies and extending traditional cultural worlds into new domains. Focusing on the response of the Sawau tribe of the island of Beqa to the commodification of the vilavilairevo as their iconic practice, this essay collection ultimately illuminates how the Christian cultural dynamics and unprecedented dogmatic schism surrounding the vilavilairevo spectacle are reshaping local notions of heritage, social sentiment and social capital.

The Heian Court Poetry as World Literature Edoardo Gerlini, 2014 What could be the common points between the literature produced at the imperial court of 9th-10th century Japan with the one composed in Italy under the rule of Frederick II of Hohenstaufen? Why the Kokinwakash in Japan and the Sicilian School of Poetry in Italy have been acknowledged as canons for later literary traditions? How did the political power influence the production of court poetry and the role of poets in the court environment? Why two particular poetic forms like the sonnet in Europe and the waka

Storia di una morte opportuna. Il diario del medico che ha fatto la volontà di Welby Mario Riccio, Gianna Milano, 2008 Immobilizzato da anni nel suo letto incapace di respirare se non grazie a una macchina nell'autunno 2006 Piergiorgio Welby malato di distrofia muscolare progressiva rende pubblica con un appello diretto al presidente della Repubblica la sua richiesta di essere lasciato morire. Il dottor Mario Riccio, anestesista di Cremona, si assume la responsabilità di fare come Welby chiede dopo averlo sedato lo distacca dal respiratore artificiale che lo tiene in vita. Questo il diario che Riccio ha tenuto durante i giorni della morte di Welby nel dicembre 2006 e poi nei mesi successivi il suo punto di vista non solo sulla vicenda strettamente medica ma anche sull'aspro confronto che si è sviluppato in Italia fin dall'appello di Welby ed il resoconto dell'iter processuale cui Riccio è stato sottoposto fino alla sentenza di proscioglimento. Un libro contro la confusione dolosa che boicotta la discussione sui temi di fine vita. Riccio ci dà una lezione di moralità professionale che in primo luogo consiste nell'assumere fino in fondo le proprie responsabilità di fronte al vero protagonista della vicenda: la persona che chiede collaborazione per poter continuare a governare la propria vita in una condizione di libertà ormai preclusa dalla situazione del corpo.
