- > V.C's should meet once a month, but no less than 6 times a year.
- > 3 members shall constitute a quorum.
- > Minutes must be kept of all meetings.
- > V.C members are entitled to visit the prison at any time and have free access to all areas.
- > They are empowered to inspect the books of the prison.

Domestic Deployment of the Armed Forces Michael Head,Scott Mann,2016-05-13 Until recently internal use of the armed forces has been generally regarded by the public as well as academic commentators as conduct to be expected of a military or autocratic regime not a democratic government There is however growing concern that the war on terror has been used to condition public opinion to accept the internal deployment of the armed forces including for broader industrial and political purposes This book examines the national and international law human rights and civil liberties issues involved in governments calling out troops to deal with civil unrest or terrorism As the introduction of military call out legislation has become an emerging global trend in the opening years of the 21st century there is considerable and growing interest in the constitutional and related problems surrounding the deployment of military forces for domestic purposes Examining the changes underway in six comparable countries the United States Canada Britain Germany Japan and Australia this book provides a review and analysis of this trend including its implications for legal and political rights Politics and the History Curriculum K. the next two financial years causing its performance against Public Service Agreement targets to suffer The likely increase in the UN Regular Budget and other international subscriptions will push this figure even higher The FCO should have to shoulder the financial burden from within its already tight budget to pay for subscriptions which also benefit other Government departments The Committee recommends that additional nondiscretionary costs should properly be met by the Treasury

The Iran Nuclear Issue Yael Ronen, 2010-05-31 Controversy over the Iranian nuclear policy has been mounting in both legal and political circles since the early 2000s Most recently the IAEA tasked with verifying compliance of Member States with the NPT has been expressing concern that Iran's nuclear efforts are directed not solely at peaceful uses but also at military purposes In response various States have tried individually and collectively to engage Iran in agreed frameworks of action that would include an Iranian self imposed restraint regarding its nuclear development This volume documents the Iranian nuclear issue tracing the evolution of international interest and concern with Iran's nuclear policy since the 1970s when Iran began earnest efforts to acquire nuclear capabilities Emphasis is placed on events since 2002 2003 when it was established that Iran had concealed certain aspects of its nuclear activities from IAEA Alongside reports of the IAEA and Security Council documents the volume covers diverse sources rather than relying solely on UN organs and agencies international organisations or dedicated ad hoc bodies
