Sashas Exploration English Edition:

Sasha Exploration , After months of battle in a high profile divorce case her marriage was finally over Gone were the tears the fighting and all the other drawbacks that her marriage brought her Sasha had seen so many wonderful couples in love They were happy and smitten with each other and she always wondered why she was never able to find that satisfaction and peace within her marriage As early on as a few months in she knew it wouldn't last Her husband wasn't the man she thought he was but she stuck it out afraid of the embarrassment that she would feel if she ended it so soon That fear led to years and years of emotional and sexual abuse that was not what she expected marriage to be She suffered in silence until she could take it no more

The Prose of Sasha Sokolov Elena Ivanovna Kravchenko, 2013 Hailed as one of the most significant writers in contemporary Russian literature Sasha Sokolov 1943 nevertheless remains one of its most hermetic Despite a considerable scholarly interest in his work no comprehensive book length study has yet been published on Sokolov With the focus on his three main texts School for Fools Between Dog and Wolf and Palisandriia this groundbreaking monograph is an exploration of Sokolov's aesthetics in which language is shown to embody reality rather than express it In her study Elena Kravchenko invites us to examine how language and art affect our perception of the real that fading away into its reflections finds its essence Elena Kravchenko is an independent researcher whose doctoral thesis School of Slavonic and Eastern European Studies UCL laid a foundation for this monograph

Exploring Cultural Identities in Jean Rhys' Fiction Cristina-Georgiana Voicu, 2014-10-02 Using a theoretical approach and a critical summary combining the perspectives in the postcolonial theory psychoanalysis and narratology with the tools of hermeneutics and deconstruction this book argues that Jean Rhys's work can be subsumed under a poetics of cultural identity and hybridity It also demonstrates the validity of the concept of hybridization as the expression of identity formation the cultural boundaries variability the opposition self otherness authenticity fiction trans textuality and the relevance of an integrated approach to multiple cultural identities as an encountering and negotiation space between writer reader and work The complexity of ontological and epistemological representation involves an interdisciplinary approach that blends a literary interpretive approach to social anthropological cultural and historical perspectives The book concludes that in the author's fictional universe cultural identity is represented as a general human experience that transcends the specific conditionalities of geographical contexts history and culture The construction of identity by Jean Rhys is represented by the dichotomy of marginal identity and the identification with a human ideal designed either by the hegemonic discourse or metropolitan culture or by the dominant ideology The identification with a pattern of cultural authenticity of racial ethnic or national purism is presented as a purely destructive cultural projection leading to the creation of a static universe in opposition to the diversity of human feelings and aspirations Jean Rhys's fictional discourse lies between the anxiety of authorship and the anxiety of influence and shows the postcolonial era of uprooting and migration in which the national ownership diluted the image of a home ambiguous located at the boundary between a myth of origins and a myth of becoming The relationship between the individual and socio cultural space is thus shaped in a dual hybrid position Exploring the Kitáb-i-Aqdas Omid Ghaemmaghami,Shahin Vafai,2025-01-23 The Kit b i Aqdas is considered the most important and sacred text of the Bah Faith a religion with some eight million adherents found in nearly every country of the world It sets out the laws teachings and institutions that shape and influence individual and collective life for members of the Bah community Despite the Kit b i Aqdas s significance it has not been extensively researched Exploring the Kit b i Aqdas The Laws and Teachings of the Bah Faith now offers a comprehensive academic study of the text This important new publication explores and analyzes the significance and history of the Kit b i Aqdas its language style and translation and its theological and spiritual foundations including its conceptions of God religion and human beings The book moreover examines the Kit b i Aqdas s provisions for succession interpretation and administration within the Bah religion its devotional and other personal laws its ordinances for promoting unity its perspectives on justice and law and its addresses to the world s political and religious leaders Academically rigorous yet eminently clear and accessible Exploring the Kit b i Aqdas is an essential read for students of religion and Middle East studies Trans-speakerism Takaaki Hiratsuka,2025-08-18 This pioneering exploration of trans speakerism takes readers on a journey that redefines the foundations of language education discourse This edited volume serves as a vital contribution bringing together assorted empirical studies and discussions contributed by scholars with various linguistic backgrounds and scholarly experiences from around the world to confront and deconstruct the enduring influence of native speakerism At the heart of this work is the innovative concept of trans speakerism which moves beyond historical bifurcated markers for language speakers Via the adoption of all embracing terminology global speakers of English GSEs global teachers of English GTEs and global Englishes researchers GERs we propose a richer more contextual understanding that shines a light on individual agency and multiplicity This volume therefore stands out not only for its theoretical insights but also for its ability to inspire change We demonstrate new ways to visualize entrenched power dynamics in language education by asserting the strengths and experiences of all practitioners and researchers whilst honoring their multifaceted identities beyond reductive linguistic categorizations Framing language education and its related fields through the prism of trans speakerism unveils new possibilities for both practitioners and researchers to refurbish traditional hierarchies and herald a future of inclusive excellence Sasha Sokolov: The Life and Work of the Russian “Proet” Martina Napolitano,2022-03-07 Martina Napolitano explores the poetics of one of the most significant Russian authors of the 20th century Sasha Sokolov s oeuvre represents a milestone in the development of Russian literature his legacy can be traced in most prose and poetry appearing in post Soviet Russia Taking as point of departure the studies and analyses written so far and considering the new suggestions contained in Sokolov s last published book Triptych 2011 Napolitano further examines the keystones and the theoretical framework that arise from a close reading of Sokolov s works trying to systematize the findings into what can be considered as a structured authorial theory of literary creation The study demonstrates how Sokolov's oeuvre cannot be fully understood but within the widened perspective of inter artistic creation in fact the writer a failed composer as he admits in his literary work has tried to draw natural and spontaneous connecting lines between the artificially categorized realms of art word sound painting performance Finally the book sets forth the first solid analysis of Sokolov's concept of proeziia not merely a genre nor style of his own invention but a more significant theoretical reflection of the writer about the role and value of literature art creation and finally beauty

Prehistoric Journey - The First Expeditions D.L. Narrol, 2024-09-06 Book 1 of Colin Limmerick's adventures Colin Limmerick lives a double life His rugged good looks and merchant fishing trade don't coincide with his desire to continue his higher education at a London university His Irish working class pirate like behavior repulses his stuffy elitist professor making it difficult for his research to be taken seriously Looks are deceiving when his research idea to prove Darwin by demonstrating the great Irish deer megaloceros giganteus was sexually selected against He meets physicist Dr Sasha Dimitrikov an eccentric escapee from the Russian Revolution who has developed a time travel theory The only way Limmerick can prove his research is to venture through a prehistory journey In the midst of his frustration he becomes enchanted with a lovely research student Rosa who he manages to woo with great difficulty Her Edwardian prudish scowl continuously pushes him away despite her stimulated attraction for him She mistakenly tosses Limmerick aside and is lured into Dr Dimitrikov's arms This occurs when the three scholars are on the first prehistoric expedition 10 000 years in the past in search of megaloceros They encounter a prehistoric environment that is too unknown and unmanageable for modern people to survive They are faced with several challenges but manage to conquer by survival of the fittest Limmerick's research on prehistoric evolution is greatly admired by a foreign professor from India Dr Sharma who introduces his voluptuous daughter Amoli She falls instantly in love with Limmerick where he is at first reluctant but succumbs to her seduction dance not realizing the clash of the cultures that lie ahead At the same time he is faced with a new challenge recognizing the first expedition left unexpected damage He must time travel again in order to mend the chaotic mess he left the first time He and Dr Dimitrikov are faced with another prehistoric expedition which is more life threatening than the first especially when they are violently confronted by a family of Neanderthals His excessive drinking carries through the novel but heightens with his destructive behavior when he finally comes to terms knowing two 20th century men can't play God and that he must fight for what he truly loves
