The SAGE Handbook for Research in Education Clifton F. Conrad, Ronald C. Serlin, 2011-06-10 The SAGE Handbook for Research in Education Pursuing Ideas as the Keystone of Exemplary Inquiry edited by Clifton F Conrad and Ronald C Serlin stimulates and encourages students faculty and educational practitioners including individuals in Pre K 16 education government and the private sector who conduct applied and policy oriented educational research to place the pursuit of ideas at the epicenter of their research from framing meaningful problems to identifying and addressing key challenges to the reporting and dissemination of their findings As well as supporting readers to place the pursuit of ideas as the keystone of exemplary inquiry the Handbook draws on the perspectives of scholars representing diverse fields within the field of education from pre kindergarten to elementary and secondary school to higher education as well as qualitative quantitative and mixed methods approaches to inquiry The chapters are punctuated throughout by the voices of authors who wrestle with the formidable challenges of framing and conducting and reporting meaningful inquiry The Literary World ,1891 The Missing Years - Edition 2 Dick Clifton,2009-11-11 While I was attached to the LRDG Long Range Desert Group I was captured and imprisoned as a P O W in Italy After escaping I spent a while in hiding with some Italian peasants and have visited them many times since the end of the war The Missing Years is my first book written as fiction based on my war time experiences

Agrarian Crossings Tore C. Olsson,2017-08-02 In the 1930s and 1940s rural reformers in the United States and Mexico waged unprecedented campaigns to remake their countrysides in the name of agrarian justice and agricultural productivity Agrarian Crossings tells the story of how these campaigns were conducted in dialogue with one another as reformers in each nation came to exchange models plans and strategies with their equivalents across the border Dismantling the artificial boundaries that can divide American and Latin American history Tore Olsson shows how the agrarian histories of both regions share far more than we realize He traces the connections between the US South and the plantation zones of Mexico places that suffered parallel problems of environmental decline rural poverty and gross inequities in land tenure Bringing this tumultuous era vividly to life he describes how Roosevelt s New Deal drew on Mexican revolutionary agrarianism to shape its program for the rural South Olsson also looks at how the US South served as the domestic laboratory for the Rockefeller Foundation s green revolution in Mexico which would become the most important Third World development campaign of the twentieth century and how the Mexican government attempted to replicate the hydraulic development of the Tennessee Valley Authority after World War II Rather than a comparative history Agrarian Crossings is an innovative history of comparisons and the ways they affected policy moved people and reshaped the landscape The Goslings Upton Sinclair,1924 Modern science has shown that within the child s soul lies magically locked up all the past of our race also it is evident that within it lies all the future of our race What our children are now being made is what America will be Upton Sinclair The Goslings In The Goslings A Study of American Schools 1924 Upton Sinclair examines how American industry influences public schools asserting that an invisible government of big business has taken over the charge of your children The book describes the influence of industry with examples from schools of several major cities Also included are sections that examine what and how a variety of forces shape education It is one in a series of six books the author wrote analyzing American institutions from a socialist perspective Other books in this muckraking Dead Hand collection include The Profits of Religion religion 1917 The Brass Check journalism 1919 The Goose Step education 1923 Mammonart art 1925 and Money
