American Exceptionalism and American Innocence Roberto Sirvent,Danny Haiphong,2019-04-02 Fake news existed long before Donald Trump What is ironic is that fake news has indeed been the only news disseminated by the rulers of U S empire From American Exceptionalism and American Innocence According to Robert Sirvent and Danny Haiphong Americans have been exposed to fake news throughout our history news that slavery is a thing of the past that we don t live on stolen land that wars are fought to spread freedom and democracy that a rising tide lifts all boats that prisons keep us safe and that the police serve and protect Thus the only news ever reported by various channels of U S empire is the news of American exceptionalism and American innocence And as this book will hopefully show it s all fake Did the U S really save the world in World War II Should black athletes stop protesting and show more gratitude for what America has done for them Are wars fought to spread freedom and democracy Or is this all fake news American Exceptionalism and American Innocence examines the stories we re told that lead us to think that the U S is a force for good in the world regardless of slavery the genocide of indigenous people and the more than a century s worth of imperialist war that the U S has wrought on the planet Sirvent and Haiphong detail just what Captain America s shield tells us about the pretensions of U S foreign policy how Angelina Jolie and Bill Gates engage in humanitarian imperialism and why the Broadway musical Hamilton is a monument to white supremacy

Policing and Crime Control in Post-apartheid South Africa Anne-Marie Singh,2016-04-22 Once a marginal political issue crime control now occupies a central place on the social political and economic agenda of contemporary liberal democracies Nowhere more so than in post apartheid South Africa where the transition from apartheid rule to democratic rule was marked by a shift in concern from political to criminal violence In this book Anne Marie Singh offers a comprehensive account of policing transformations in post apartheid South Africa Her analysis of crime and mechanisms for its control is linked to an analysis of neo liberal policies providing the basis for a critique of existing analyses of liberal democratic governance Themes addressed in the book include the exercise of coercive authority state and non state expertise in policing the rationally choosing criminal and the importance of developing an active and responsible citizenship

Advertising and Selling, 1916 Fourth Estate, 1923 Brixton Rock Alex Wheatle, 2014-11-30 Pacey witty his characters are real and recognisable LINTON KWESI JOHNSON Alex Wheatle writes from a place of honesty and passion with the full knowledge and understanding that change can only happen through words and actions STEVE McQUEEN director of Small Axe South London in the 1980s Brenton Brown is a 16 year old mixed heritage boy who has lived in a children's home all his life He has never met his mother and is haunted by her loss The best thing happens Brenton is reunited with his mother Cynthia And then the worst he falls in love with his beautiful half sister Juliet At the same time Brenton meets his nemesis in the shape of Terry Flynn a killer who scars him for life Brenton must seek revenge All this leads to an explosive climax as Brenton struggles to hold on to his sanity Brixton Rock is the powerfully explosive debut of one of the UK's finest writers with pitch perfect descriptions of South London street life Transnational Companies and Security Governance Jana Hönke, 2013-08-21 This book investigates governance practiced by non state actors It analyses how multinational mining companies protect their sites in fragile contexts and what that tells us about political ordering beyond the state Based on extensive primary research in the Democratic Republic of Congo South Africa Europe and North America the book compares companies political role in the 19th and 21st centuries It demonstrates that despite a number of disturbing parallels many contemporary practices are not a reversion to the past but unique to the present The book discloses hybrid security practices with highly ambiguous effects around the sites of contemporary companies that have committed to norms of corporate social and security responsibility Companies invest in local communities and offer human rights training to security forces alongside coercive techniques of fortress protection and stability oriented clientele practice and arrangements of indirect rule The book traces this hybridity back to contradictory collective meaning systems that cross borders and structure the perceptions and choices of company managers private security officers NGO collaborators and others practitioners The book argues that hybrid security practices are not the result of an encounter between a supposed local with the liberal global Instead this hybridity is inherent in the transnational and part and parcel of liberal transnational governance Therefore more critical reflection of global governance in practice is required These issues are sharply pertinent to liberal peacebuilding as well as global governance more broadly The book will be of interest to anyone interested in business politics and human rights critical security studies peacebuilding and statebuilding African politics and ethnographic and sociological approaches to global governance and international relations more generally
