Decorating Your Sarcophagus

Think carefully about what any would look like when it is made up!

The top of these are cut so the side of the sarcophagus near the head, or the mummy would look out.

A scarab beetle was often painted on the sarcophagus as it was a powerful symbol of rebirth.

Gods and goddesses were painted or carved into the sarcophagus.

A false door was painted on the sides so the mummy's spirit could leave and re-enter the sarcophagus.

Strips of hieroglyphics tell the story of who was inside and gave them information that might be helpful in the afterlife. It could also ward off your enemies!
