1993-94 Schools and Staffing Survey, 1996 Schools and Staffing Survey, 1996 Filling the Gaps Sharon A. Bobbitt, 1992. The elementary and secondary education data collection system has undergone a major transformation over the past decade, becoming a coordinated, cohesive system. This report reviews what the National Center for Education Statistics (NCES) can and cannot say about education in the United States for kindergarten through grade 12. Six issue areas have been defined by the Indicators Panel convened by the NCES. In the first part of this document, six types of data are juxtaposed against the following six issue areas: 1. institutions and their characteristics, 2. finance, 3. staffing, 4. curriculum and course content, 5. students, and 6. achievement. The second part of this report is then organized into sections that provide information on continuing data collections, new initiatives, and remaining gaps for each of these broad types of education data. Each section contains a description of the availability of the data specific to its subject, a bibliography of current and planned NCES publications on the topic and a summary chart of the availability of data The NCES remains committed to providing timely and policy relevant data The data collection system maintains its relevance by remaining flexible and responsive to new policy needs An appendix provides a short profile of each national survey that collects data on education in kindergarten through grade 12 SLD National Center For Education Statistics, User's Manual, Schools and Staffing Survey, 1993-94 Schools and Staffing Survey: Data File User's Manual, Vol. 1: Survey Documentation, October 1996 ,1996 1993-94 Schools and Staffing Survey: Survey documentation ,1996 Working Paper Series ,2003 Wiley CPA Exam Review 2013 O. Economics of Education Dominic J. Brewer, Patrick J. McEwan, 2010-01-26 A collection of short stand alone chapters divided into five sections including overview of the field private and social returns to human capital investments production costs and financing of education teachers and teacher labor markets and education markets choice and incentives The collection provides international perspectives that describe the origins of these subjects their major issues and proponents their landmark studies and opportunities for future research The 70 contributors are each well regarded economists whose research has advanced the topic on which they write and this book fulfills an undersupplied niche for a text in the economics of education. The chapters come from the acclaimed International Encyclopedia of Education 3e 2010 edited by Eva Baker, Barry McGaw and Penelope Peterson. The Encyclopedia contains over 1,350 articles in 24 sections that stretch from educational philosophies and technologies to measurement, leadership and national systems of education. This single volume textbook presents a cohesive view of this increasingly important area of economics. Superb contributions from well-regarded economists convey unique and useful perspectives. Chapters contain an extensive bibliography and further readings to enable interested researchers to extend their knowledge into each specific topic.
