The US in World War I

Objective

(writing prompt, your self)

1. explain the impact the military-industrial effect had on the outcome of the war.
2. describe the changes that occurred in the economy during the war and the impact on the home front as well as the war effort.
3. compare and contrast the involvement of African American soldiers in the US with the democratic principles they had been fighting for.
4. understand how the deep hatred Wilson's Executive Order contributed to the signing of the Treaty of Versailles.

The United States and the War in Europe

In April of 1917, President Woodrow Wilson addressed a joint session of Congress.

He called on the legislators to join an effort to stop the struggle and join the war in Europe. September Congress declared war against Germany, and the United States entered World War I.

When United States entered the war, Congress passed legislation to allow the US to loan money to the allied nations for war supplies. It also established drafting system law of 1917. This law established the draft which allowed the United States to increase its war strength.

Conscription law which applied to all men aged 18 to 30 were required to register for the armed forces.
