Participants filled out a consent, including the FBI, Chicago Police, and Fire Department. We shaped our instrument and questionnaire for the month of August. The reason is that August is one of the month's hottest months, and as a result, firefighters and police departments do not conduct the typical shift schedule. Instead, they conduct shift schedules in which they have a continuous shift.

These three films will be well-represented by geographical features that have reflected their authors' histories, the landscapes, and the contemporary challenges and opportunities they face today. From the annual mid-term election to the Supreme Court's decision on gay marriage, we'll make sure geographic features in films talk to the people of 2014.
