

Homework Questions 1

How effective was the Treaty of Versailles?

The Treaty of Versailles, which was finally that created four years of fighting in World War I. The Treaty was signed by Germany and the Allied Nations on June 28, 1919, formally ending World War I. The terms of the treaty required that Germany pay financial reparations, disarm, lose territory, and give up all of its overseas colonies. At the time it was implemented ending War 1 War 2 had brought millions for years of Germany including World War 2 20 years later.

Homework Questions 2

Choose four of the historians and explain their points of view on what they said

Mr Max Hastings- military historian

Hastings perspective is that Germany started World War I. Hastings says that he doesn't believe that Britain, America or France started WWI and that Germany is the only one that should be held accountable. His argument is that Germany started only country with that power to start a war in July 1914 by assassinating the Archduke of Austria for Austria's invasion of Serbia.

Mr Richard J. Evans- English politician and historian, University of Cambridge

J Evans perspective is that Britain is responsible for starting World War I. His argument is that because of Britain's imperialism and its policies, other European countries feared this attempt and this could be made as what he called War 1. Also, the explosion from the assassination of Archduke Franz Ferdinand, made the other countries nervous and the war started by in Britain.
