Worldview As Worship The Dynamics Of A Transformative Christian Education:

Worldview as Worship Eddie Karl Baumann, 2011-08-01 The goal of many evangelical educators is to facilitate biblical thinking and the worldview transformation of their students Yet aside from upholding a set of moral behaviors or maintaining positions on issues perceived to be Christian the goals and aspirations of most evangelical young people differ little from their unbelieving peers As George Barna has noted We have a generation coming up that isn't looking at Christianity to answer spiritual concerns We either change or we lose them Worldview as Worship contends that the approach taken by most evangelical educators to the issue of worldview transformation has neglected to address two fundamental components of worldviews First that our initial worldviews are not philosophical systems but rather faith dispositions and that worldview transformation cannot simply present the biblical worldview as a more rational or logical system but must address issues of the heart as well as the mind Second unlike philosophies that are individual worldviews are communal and are learned and transformed within the context of community practice Appealing to Paul's teaching in Romans 12:1-2 Worldview as Worship approaches the renewing of your mind as the result of the believer's presentation of themselves as a holy sacrifice which is your spiritual service of worship The book advocates an approach to worldview transformation that focuses on believers as apprentices rather than simply as students an approach that holds true to the biblical model of discipleship As a result worldview transformation works best when the application of faith to the issues of learning and life are modeled by the faith community and where students are given the opportunity to put faith into practice Setting a Sustainable Trajectory

Rob Lindemann, 2018-01-03 Many Christian colleges promote worldview formation as part of their purpose and learning objectives An institution teaches a worldview with intentionality enculturates it through community life reinforces it through human interaction and passes it on through symbols and stories Accreditation standards often require colleges to demonstrate how their programs support the development of a biblical worldview This requirement necessitates a search for teaching and assessment approaches that can best serve this essential goal In this book the author reports on qualitative research with Bible colleges and offers a pedagogical theory for supporting students' lifelong development of worldview This theory shows how college teachers can clarify their goals set relevant objectives employ effective teaching strategies and design helpful assessment methods Being Spiritual while Doing Research

Volker Kessler, Marilyn Naidoo, Tanya van Wyk, Philipp Wenk, Although the topic of spirituality has been experiencing a renaissance since the end of the previous century it is not always associated with academic activities The book invites scholars from all fields to rethink this traditional divide between knowledge and spirituality offering fresh perspectives on how the two can coexist and enhance each other Twenty nine authors from across the world illustrate how scholarly pursuits in various disciplines can be deeply spiritual journeys Marx and We Sun Zhengyu, 2024-08-01 Marxist ideology is the only fully scientific ideology the only one able to guide mankind toward the settlement of fundamental social problems and to point out the royal road for the proletariat to take in its march toward socialism and communism Without Marxism modern people cannot establish true social ideals nor can they engage in the rational pursuit of values Without Marxism modern people cannot choose the correct path of development nor can they build up new forms of civilizations Without Marxism modern people would never base their commitments to schedule the consensus building effort and support the consensus building process on any irrefutably and sufficiently sound theoretical foundations

Thriving in Babylon David B. Capes,J. Daryl Charles,2011-01-01 This delightfully multifaceted volume comprised of thoughtful essays by an esteemed array of cultural critics probes the intersection of Christian faith and culture to honor the memory of A J Chip Conyers a remarkably ecumenical Christian scholar and cultural warrior whose premature death in 2004 cut short a remarkable career in teaching and writing As those who knew him can attest Conyers lived his life at the intersection of Christian theology and cultural concern with a singular blend of astuteness gracefulness and Christian conviction This festschrift as esteemed theologian and Conyers s mentor Jurgen Moltmann indicates in the foreword is intended to mirror Conyers s own commitment to incisive cultural criticism and theological faithfulness in the mold of the great tradition This is no small achievement even for so venerable a cast of scholars as the contributors to this volume as Conyers crossed interdisciplinary boundaries in a day of escalating hyper specialization with the greatest of ease He was comfortable discussing contemporary church life or the christological controversy of the patristic era Heideggerian hermeneutics or human dignity and the imago Dei faith and the Enlightenment or the fatherhood of God Catholic substance or Protestant reform Yet Conyers always did this through the lens of historic Christian orthodoxy Though he was a most incisive student of culture in a most refreshing way he steered clear of being co opted by the currents of culture Neither retreating into pious devotionism nor opting for the theologically unreflective activism that has become so chic in our post consensus climate he embodied a theological perspective that blends responsible cultural engagement with eschatological hope The reader is sure to encounter the same blend in this festschrift and to come away both challenged and edified toward fulfilling the message and hope of Conyers life and work to faithfully thrive in Babylon

Who Are You, and Who Am I? Hannes Wiher,2024-12-20 In a globalized world with increasing migration and diaspora we live alongside a growing number of people from different backgrounds and cultures With these multicultural communities how do we live as good neighbours as well as share the love of God with cultural awareness and sensitivity Who Are You and Who Am I provides an in depth approach that makes accessible the knowledge needed for harmonious intercultural relationships evangelism and discipleship Hannes Wiher a renowned missiologist explores the concepts of worldview and identity drawing on communication theory philosophy anthropology theology and missiology to bring the practicalities of both to life and fruitfully apply these to Scripture theology and the church Missiologists missionaries and Christians in multicultural societies alike will find in this work a rich practical and accessible resource

Transforming the Struggles of Tamars Lina Androviene,2014-05-29 This book explores the unprecedented challenge of involuntary singleness for women and the implications of disregarding this challenge for the Christian and particularly baptistic communities of faith It argues that these communities not only fail involuntarily single women but also in so doing suffer a serious detriment to their own communal health and Christian witness Taking the challenge of involuntary singleness as a test case this book explores the method of convictional theology and argues for a holistic framework that can draw together the personal communal and visionary spheres of human existence Although primarily a work of theological ethics it also draws from a number of different disciplines including cultural studies and sociology as well as intersections of science and theology

Theology, Church, and Ministry David S. Dockery, 2017-10-01 Theology Church and Ministry A Handbook for Theological Education helps readers understand the critical role theological education plays in equipping God called ministers for service in the church

The Worldview of the Word of Faith Movement: Eden Redeemed Mikael Stenhammar, 2021-12-16 This volume approaches the Word of Faith as a worldview and analyses the movement through N T Wright s model for worldview analysis in order to provide necessary nuance and complexity to scholarly interpretations of the Word of Faith The reader receives insights into the movement s narrative semiotic practical and propositional dimensions which cumulatively offer a multifaceted understanding of how the Word of Faith interprets reality and engages with the world The analysis shows that there is a narrative core to Word of Faith beliefs in the form of a unique theological story with focus set on the present restoration of Eden s authority and blessings This study demonstrates how the Word of Faith operates as a distinct worldview that parses the world through the lens of faith s causative power to affect a direct correspondence between present reality and Eden s perfection The findings advance a critical and therapeutic approach that acknowledges how the worldview both strengthens and subverts Pentecostalism

A Sort of Homecoming Marcia Boniferno, Amanda Jagt, Andrew Stephens-Rennie, 2020-08-04 We live in a culture of collective fear over climate change and mass migration and we experience increasing intense personal anxiety and despair How might the Bible s themes of homecoming and homemaking address our physical emotional and spiritual displacement This collection of essays honors the academic and community work of Brian J Walsh upon his retirement as Campus Minister at the University of Toronto Christian Reformed Campus Ministry The collection is a stunning mosaic at once academic and personal representing the many elements of Brian s life as pastor theologian professor farmer mentor and friend In an age when home feels physically and spiritually elusive for so many this volume reawakens our imaginations to the foundational biblical themes of homecoming and homemaking Academic pastoral personal and timely this volume honors Brian s career and equips readers to engage the fear and anxiety of our age with the hope of the gospel

The Spirit Driven Church Terje Hegertun, 2017-06-28 Must the church be either charismatic or sacramental In this book Terje Hegertun argues that she has the privilege of being both The Day of Pentecost formed her identity and shaped her conviction of being lifted on the arms of grace and pushed forward by the power from on high In the midst of her vulnerability and failure the worldwide faith community is a composition of the Spirit One of the greatest gifts the church may offer the world is simply to be church a charismatic sacramental fellowship a dwelling place of God's Spirit A church nurtured by graceful charismatic and sacramental gifts fosters a mature congregational spirituality distinguished by hospitable relations Thus the Spirit of God plays the main role of being the comprehensive principle of Christian unity across denominational lines Home Together Thomas Bergen,2020-08-13 Emerging adults today feel homeless and alone How can the church share the good news of a God who offers home and togetherness Home Together gives a compelling account of a Christian student residence that has shared this good news by engaging emerging adults in a community of discipleship and belonging For over thirty years the Menno Simons Centre in Vancouver British Columbia has supported university students and helped them to grow together in their faith Using the metaphor of home to describe this community Thomas Bergen outlines a practical theology of ministry among emerging adults as a shared home construction project He explores six aspects of the Menno Simons Centre as home spiritual supportive sabbatical safe spurring and sending combining theological reflection cultural analysis personal testimonies and practical wisdom Set against the backdrop of postmodern challenges Home Together offers an inspiring model of ministry among university students that might well be adapted for other contexts Reordering Theological Reflection Helen Collins,2020-05-29 What would theological reflection look like if scripture were the starting point For many beginning the process of formation the bible is already a natural place to begin and models of theological reflection which start in other places can be hard to swallow All too often as a result they reject the idea of reflecting theologically altogether an outcome which is damaging for their future ministry and for the church as a whole This book to re discover the theological heart of the discipline of practical theology and develop new methods which take scripture and tradition more seriously Offering an alternative to the usual models of theological reflection this careful and helpful guide demonstrates to students the possibilities which emerge when the starting point for theological reflective practice Global Arts and Christian Witness (Mission in Global Community) Roberta R. King,2019-07-16 Veteran missionary scholar Roberta King draws on a lifetime of study and firsthand mission experience to show how witness through contextualized global arts can dynamically reveal Christ to all peoples King offers the global church biblical foundations historical pathways theoretical frameworks and effective practices for communicating Christ through the arts in diverse contexts Supplemented with stories from the field illustrations and discussion questions this textbook offers innovative and dynamic approaches essential for doing mission in transformative ways through the arts It also features a full color insert of artwork discussed in the book When Helping Hurts Steve Corbett,Brian Fikkert,2009-06-24 Churches and individual Christians typically have faulty assumptions about the causes of poverty resulting in the use of strategies that do considerable harm to poor people and themselves When Helping Hurts provides foundational concepts clearly articulated general principles and relevant applications The result is an effective and holistic ministry to the poor not a truncated gospel A situation is assessed for whether relief rehabilitation or development is the best response to a situation Efforts are characterized by an asset based approach rather than a needs based approach Short term mission efforts are addressed and economic development strategies appropriate for North American and international contexts are presented including microenterprise development

Mission by the People Alexander C. Forsyth, 2017-08-29 How is Christianity to express itself in the public forum within Western nations This book seeks answers through a historical retrieval of the dynamic mission in post war Scotland of Tom Allan and his contemporaries the Iona Community the Gorbals Group Ministry inspired by the East Harlem Protestant Parish and Robert Mackie Ian Fraser and Scottish Churches House Allan s missiology focused upon the apostolate of the laity allowing ordinary people to express their faith in word and deed in a full contextualization of Christianity to seek a missionary parish of constant witness and service The book examines his work in parish ministry nationally as leader of the Tell Scotland Movement and internationally with the WCC and the rich sources and context of his missiology Key questions are asked about tensions caused by the role of the church and the effect of the Billy Graham All Scotland Crusade which Allan instigated on the rapid decline in Christian adherence from the late fifties His work is placed alongside his contemporaries who took bold steps beyond those of Allan to relocate faith to the rhythms of the streets Utilizing present day missiology as a lens their inspiration leads to derivations and principles offered as guideposts for Christian mission now

Proactive Pastoral Counseling Yaron I. Kohen, 2025-06-25 Proactive Pastoral Counseling An Intrapersonal Approach for Cultivating Christian Formation is a practical and Spirit led guide for believers who long to grow deeper in Christ and find freedom from inner struggles Rev Dr Yaron I Kohen tackles the confusion and hurt caused by religious legalism and spiritual relativism offering a clear four step biblical process to renew readers minds and reshape their lives Through Scripture spiritual insight and real life application readers will learn how to confront personal battles challenge unhealthy thinking and align their thoughts with God s truth This book doesn t just lead toward inner healing it equips people to help others walk in biblical clarity peace and purpose

The Oxford Handbook of Calvin and Calvinism Bruce Gordon, Carl R. Trueman, 2021-07-28 The Oxford Handbook of Calvin and Calvinism offers a comprehensive assessment of John Calvin and the tradition of Calvinism as it evolved from the sixteenth century to today Featuring contributions from scholars who present the latest research on a pluriform religious movement that became a global faith The volume focuses on key aspects of Calvin s thought and its diverse reception in Europe the transatlantic world Africa South America and Asia Calvin s theology was from the beginning open to a wide range of interpretations and was never a static body of ideas and practices Over the course of his life his thought evolved and deepened while retaining unresolved tensions and questions that created a legacy that was constantly evolving in different cultural contexts Calvinism itself is an elusive term bringing together Christian communities that claim a shared heritage but often possess radically distinct characters The Handbook reveals fascinating patterns of continuity and change to demonstrate how the movement claimed the name of the Genevan reformer but was moulded by an extraordinary range of religious intellectual and historical influences from the Enlightenment and Darwinism to indigenous African beliefs and postmodernism In its global contexts Calvinism has been continuously reimagined and reinterpreted This collection throws new light on the highly dynamic and fluid nature of a deeply influential form of Christianity Anthropology for Christian Witness Charles H. Kraft, 1996 This book serves as a thorough basic introduction to the study of anthropology that has been designed specifically for those who plan careers in mission or cross cultural ministry Kraft treats various theories of culture and society kinship and family structure cross cultural communication and assesses various anthropological schools

Mission and Evangelism in a Secularizing World Narry F. Santos, Mark Naylor, 2019-02-14 Secularization as a movement away from a religious orientation to life is strong in Canada and has influence worldwide In this volume missiologists and practitioners across Canada consider how an agenda of Christian mission and evangelism can be advanced in a secularizing environment How can believers be curious and engaged rather than defensive and fearful What changes are required from the evangelical community so that there is productive dialogue and action in ways that maintain faithfulness to the cause of Christ What should the approach of mission be to a new generation steeped in secular narratives How do we answer negative caricatures of Christian mission in light of the history of Residential Schools What examples from the past teach us about developing an irenic approach What positive trends are currently evident in Canada and around the world that counter the secularizing narrative These questions and more are considered in this volume by Canadian scholars who recognize the importance of being relevant to society while maintaining integrity with the Gospel message The essays address secularism in Canadian and worldwide contexts with seriousness insight and an underlying theme of hope recognizing that God's mission has been accomplished is being accomplished and will be accomplished
