Kill everything: when you are sent to a region to complete a quest, whether flying or kill pumpkins, going beyond the call of duty, kill everything that moves. Make this your quests in some regions take longer, but it will be worth a long term. You will gain more experience and the objects, the two elements essential to the functioning of power leveling.

In the zones or the RPOR enemies quickly, stick around until looted tomb. Once their grave booty a grey, or they stop completely drop the loot, move to the field according to cultivable or quest area. Kill time is better spent on winning both the experience and loot, so pass something else when the loot falls decline.

Focus your quests in individual areas: when your quest log is full of tasks that lead you around the world of warcraft, always remember that the journey is more time killer in the game. When you're less than level 40 and disassembled, you will find this time better spent focusing on quests zones in and hitting them all before has another domain. In this ways, you're done maximum and can turn into multiple quests when you make the long journey back in town, leveling thus effectively and in a timely manner. Use a guide or from a source such as thottbot.com to draw your best plan of attack depending on the place where the enemies / quest items, and how they loved ones on the other.

Stay in yellow: enemies worth murders are yellow and above, and green enemies, although easy to kill dozens, often experience points and loot, something which is often inferior to your needs. Some classes, and some play, can remove the occasional orange or red death, but they take a lot of time and the seeds are not all that you would expect in terms of experience, these victories may have losses of better quality items.
