Significant Others Monte Cox, 2017-09-12 A generation ago most Americans had little or no contact with Muslims Hindus Buddhists or any other adherents of non-Christian religions Now our culture is much more pluralistic In addition to these others many Westerners disenchanted with Christianity are more inclined than they were a generation ago to dabble in new spiritual alternatives that were not as readily available here before Many Christians feel intimidated by these changes Many Christians don't know how to engage their newest non-Christian neighbors in conversation partly because they feel ignorant about the religions practiced by others Significant Others seeks to fill this knowledge gap so readers will become more acquainted with the religious backgrounds of devout non Christians they are meeting as well as with the growing number of American people who claim no religious affiliation at all Each chapter outlines the major world religions according to their significant founders or leading figures significant beliefs and practices significant sects and developments and significant points of contact and points of contrast with Christian faith

Preaching with Cultural Intelligence Matthew D. Kim, 2017-10-17 To preach effectively in today's world preachers need cultural intelligence They must build bridges between listeners who come from various denominations ethnicities genders locations religious backgrounds and more Experienced preacher and teacher Matthew Kim provides a step by step template for cross cultural hermeneutics and homiletics equipping preachers to reach their varied listeners in the church and beyond Each chapter includes questions for individual thought or group discussion The book also includes helpful diagrams and images a sample sermon and appendixes for exegesis listeners and for exploring cultural differences

Place/No-Place in Urban Asian Religiosity Joanne Punzo Waghorne, 2016-07-15 This book discusses Asia's rapid pace of urbanization with a particular focus on new spaces created by and for everyday religiosity The essays in this volume covering topics from the global metropolises of Singapore Bangalore Seoul Beijing and Hong Kong to the regional centers of Gwalior Pune Jaipur and sites like Wudang Mountain examine in detail the spaces created by new or changing religious organizations that range in scope from neighborhood based to consciously global The definition of spatial aspects includes direct place making projects such as the construction of new religious buildings temples halls and other meeting sites as well as less tangible religious endeavors such as the production of new mental spaces urged by spiritual leaders or the shift from terra firma to the strangely concrete effervesce of cyberspace With this in mind it explores how distinct and blurred and open and bounded communities generate and participate in diverse practices as they deliberately engage or disengage with physical landscapes cityscapes It highlights how through these religious organizations changing class and gender configurations ongoing political and economic transformations continue as significant factors shaping and affecting Asian urban lives In addition the book goes further by exploring new and often bittersweet improvements like metro rail lines new national highways widespread internet access that bulldoze both literally and figuratively religious places and force relocations and adjustments that are often innovative and unexpected Furthermore this volume explores personal experiences within the particularities of selected religious organizations and the ways that subjects interpret or actively construct urban spaces The essays show through ethnographically and historically grounded case studies the variety of ways newly emerging religious communities or religious institutions understand value interact with or strive to ignore extreme urbanization and rapidly changing built environments

Harrison,L. L. Welborn,2021-11-05 An examination of early Roman Christianity by New Testament and classical scholars Building on the methodologies introduced in the first volume of The First Urban Churches and supplementing the in depth studies of Corinth Ephesus Philippi Colossae Hierapolis and Laodicea vols 2 5 essays in this volume challenge readers to reexamine what we know about the early church within Rome and the port city of Ostia In the introductory section of the book James R Harrison discusses the material and documentary evidence of both cities which sets the stage for the essays that follow In the second section Mary Jane Cuyler James R Harrison Richard Last Annelies Moeser Thomas A Robinson Michael P Theophilos and L L Welborn examine a range of topics including the Ostian Synagogue Romans 1 2 4 against the backdrop of Julio Claudian adoption and apotheosis traditions and the epistle of 1 Clement In the final section of this volume Jutta Dresken Welland and Mark Reasoner engage Peter Lampe s magnum opus From Paul to Valentinus Lampe wraps up the section and the volume with a response Throughout readers are provided with a rich demonstration of how the material evidence of the city of Rome illuminates the emergence of Roman Christianity especially in the first century CE The

Illustrated Guide to World Religions Michael David Coogan,1998 Graced with rich illustrations and written by a team of eminent scholars this book presents a wealth of information on faiths around the world Each chapter in this volume examines one of seven major world religions from Judaism to Christianity and from Islam to Buddhism Compassionate Intercultural Care Practices for Coping with Grief James Japheth Sudarshan Harrichand,2024-03-31 As humans we all express our grief differently Acknowledging this truth Dr James Harrichand examines Old Testament accounts of grief and mourning alongside the experiences of marginalized Guyanese and Vietnamese immigrant communities in Canada He explores both biblical and pastoral theology through an anthropological lens bridging the horizons of Scripture and culture in a hermeneutically and pastorally sensitive manner Dr Harrichand s focus on prosaic prayers in the Old Testament fills a significant gap in the scholarship but this book is also significant for its immense practicality sensitizing readers to grief's varied expressions and equipping culturally intelligent pastoral caregivers He presents five compassionate intercultural care practices for coping with grief grounding each in the living hope of the redemptive work of Jesus Christ the one who bore our griefs and carries our sorrows

Worldviews and Christian Education W. Shipton, 2013-08-14 Christ's instruction to his disciples was to witness to others about his plan of salvation This may be relatively easy when it involves our contemporaries and peers But when we are working with people from a different cultural background or belief system it can be difficult or seemingly impossible In Worldviews and Christian Education editors W A Shipton E Coetzee and R Takeuchi have brought together works by experts in cross cultural religious education The authors and editors have a wealth of personal experience in presenting the gospel to individuals with various worldviews that differ greatly from those held by Christians who take the Bible as authoritative They focus on the beliefs and issues associated with witnessing to seekers for truth coming from backgrounds as diverse as animism Buddhism Confucianism Hinduism Islam Marxism Taoism and postmodernism The emphasis is on educational settings but the sensitivities highlighted and lessons learned are applicable to situations outside this area Leaders pastors teachers and laypersons will find valuable conceptual models practical ideas and bibliographic references presented here Worldviews and Christian Education challenges all readers to be faithful to the biblical worldview and to approach everyone with sensitivity so that like the apostle Paul they may reach some

God among Sages Kenneth Richard Samples, 2017-01-31 Was Jesus just a spiritual leader like Buddha Krishna Confucius and Muhammad Or is he something more something else entirely In God among Sages apologist Ken Samples offers readers a biblical and historical portrait of Jesus grounded in the claims Jesus makes about himself Then Samples compares and contrasts Jesus with Buddha Krishna Confucius and Muhammad using eight relevant categories of evaluation He also helps readers understand the competing philosophies of religious pluralism inclusivism and exclusivism The result is a clearer understanding of what sets Jesus apart as not simply a teacher to follow but God himself worthy of our full allegiance and worship Christians who struggle to answer claims that Jesus was just a good teacher as well as those haven't quite made up their minds about Jesus's claims to divinity will value this accessible introduction to comparative religions

Discovering World Religions at 24 Frames Per Second Julien R. Fielding, 2008-09-26 Traditionally university students have gained access to world religions by reading primary texts Discovering World Religions at 24 Frames Per Second takes students beyond the written page offering an exploration of the same religious traditions through the study of feature films The many definitions of religion are examined along with its various components including doctrine myth ethics ritual and symbol Specific religious traditions including Hinduism Sikhism Zoroastrianism Buddhism Confucianism Daoism popular religion and Shinto are examined Biographical sketches of directors whose films tend to focus on a particular religious tradition are also included such as Zhang Yimou Hayao Miyazaki Deepa Mehta and Akira Kurosawa Discovering World Religions at 24 Frames Per Second is unique in the area of religion and film studies in that it isn't just a collection of essays Instead it provides the introductory student with the necessary background information on the various religions before looking at how their ideas can be understood not through texts but through the cinematic medium To keep the conversation fresh most of the films used in the book were made within the last decade Furthermore examples range from popular mainstream fare such as Star Wars and the Lord of the Rings trilogy to lesser known foreign films such as The Wooden Man's Bride and The Great Yokai War Several films with a cult like following are also discussed including Fight Club Princess Mononoke Spirited Away and Jacob's Ladder This book is also unique in that instead of drawing upon the Judeo Christian tradition it draws from Eastern traditions
