Everybody Has a Story & Everybody's Story Counts Silvio Tomeo-Nosdow,2022-08-15 In this hybrid memoir inspired by his faith in Christ Silvio takes a very honest open minded and intrinsic look at the first thirty three years of his existence In this Volume I he chronicles his first twenty three years From birth through the early days then through adolescence and the rough teenage years up until when he graduates from college Silvio examines why he made certain decisions along the way and how those decisions effected the trajectory of his life s path In Volume II Silvio takes a very introspective journey through his adult life after college He shares his experiences in the professional world as well as his very personal adventures in faith family friendship or as Silvio refers to it brotherhood and of course love He ends Volume II

at age thirty three a very pivotal point in his life when he found himself at yet another impasse both professionally and romantically This memoir pays constant tribute to those who impacted Silvio amidst those first thirty three years From many family members to friends teachers coaches and pastors Silvio details very specific memories that took place with those influential individuals How much better of a place would the world be if we all not only looked for the positives in the experiences we've shared with others but we took the time to document those experiences and told people what they meant to us and what we learned from them
