Tremors in the Universe Robert Lyman Baittie, 2014-09-17 It's funny how life has a way of changing people It definitely changed me I was tooling along day after day set in my ways looking at life like a racehorse wearing blinders oblivious to seeing the world any other way than I knew how because I ultimately had fashioned my vision of it I fit myself with the glasses I wore and I wrote the prescription for the lenses with my attitude faith and beliefs But I got lucky Parkinson's came along slapped me upside the head and knocked my spectacles off of my face And luckier still while my glasses were on the ground I inadvertently stepped on them and crushed them into a million pieces I was blind I was forced to extend my hands out in front of me to rediscover my world all over again Taking baby steps with fear in my heart that I would bang my head into a wall But you know what happened A miraculous thing took place My memory of where the important things in my life were took over and what I valued and needed the most magically appeared for me Love friendship compassion spirit and purpose My appreciation for what was at my fingertips was heightened as well I suddenly discovered a comforting realization that I could continue to succeed in life with less Less envy less anger less anxiety less fear of old age and death It was liberating I was
