Seven Decades of My Life (Classic Reprint) James Reid Cole,2017-12-02 Excerpt from Seven Decades of My Life There are pictures of childhood and manhood and old age pictures of love and battle and joy and sorrow pictures of success and failures of struggles and peace pictures of music and discord of friends and enemies I propose to talk about these pictures for a while I don't know how long You needn't listen unless you like it won't hurt you to listen and it may not make you any wiser it may put you to sleep and that will be well or it may help you to while away an hour when you have nothing better to do There will be nothing wonderful about these pictures for they will represent the movements of an ordinary life and I am no great artist I propose to divide these seventy years into Seven Decades and compare the importance and the work of each with the others First when the rod was not spared Second when the girl appeared Third when the wife was found Fourth when the voices of children were heard Fifth when the battle for bread was on and the city lured Sixth when the footprints were on the mountain top and the face was towards the sunset Seventh when the yellow leaf was uttering in the wintry winds and the snows began to fall and the time approached when the silver cord was to be loosed or the golden bowl was to be broken About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

Classic Papers in Geriatric Medicine with Current Commentaries Robert J. Pignolo, Monica Crane, Mary Ann Forciea, 2010-04-28 The field of geriatrics foundations is rooted in the classic papers of early descriptions of aging and age related diseases In Classic Papers in Geriatric Medicine with Current Commentaries the authors chose the classic papers providing a combination of expert opinion and objective assessment The 15 areas in this volume represent the beginnings of practice and thoughts about the best ways to care for older patients Each paper is introduced by a commentary describing the singular contributions of the chosen paper with a short list of other important early papers in that area and in many cases reflect on progress in that particular field The commentaries are personal statements by the authors about the influence of the papers chosen not meant to be exhaustive reviews of the clinical area in question Classic Papers in Geriatric Medicine with Current Commentaries exemplifies the importance of a paper and its ability to retain its impact over time While many of the classic papers in this collection have stood the test of time others have gained classic status by virtue of their profound influence in relatively quick measure or because of timeliness in filling a void in knowledge Interior Lights in a Dark Universe Richard Schain,2012-01-27 INTERIOR LIGHTS expresses a philosophy of interior self and a defense of metaphysical reality The bulk of the book is composed of trechos Port literary passages that contain the authors personal and philosophical meditations Issues addressed include what is a soul interior development through writing bourgeois reality metaphysical reality and independent spirituality From the books preface Certain states of mind are required for a reader to gain something from this work These are 1 The ability to read slowly in order to reflect on unfamiliar or impolitic ideas and 2 A sense of being at odds with society The reader must feel the need to separate himself in some way from the world in which he lives It is not for those who wish only to strengthen their position in it 3 Most important of all a reader must have a metaphysical sensibility He or she must be aware that the material world is not all that there is and that there is a dimension of reality not experienced in our daily object oriented existence INTERIOR LIGHTS is essential reading for writers publishers literary agents and all those interested in development of self through the writing process M Dreisbach Ph D CSU Professor Emeritus of Education Your books are vivid and full of ideas I quite agree with you that the world is in need of art and not historical scholars One can doubt everything but if one writes one must be secretly a fanatic of ones mind E M Cioran Richard Schain is a member of a small but significant group of independent philosophers working outside of academic philosophy I believe that his writings serve as powerful testimony to the value of the life of the mind and the perennial urgency of the questions of metaphysics Geoffrey Klempner D Phil Director of Studies International Society for Philosophers Editor Philosophy Pathways Growing a Farmer: How I Learned to Live Off the Land Kurt Timmermeister,2012-01-30 Former urbanite Timmermeister offers an intimate look at the life and livelihood of a modern day farmer Exiled in East Germany Sebastian Pampuch,2024-04-22 The presence of Africans in the German Democratic Republic is very rarely thought of in connection with the experience of exile Instead Africans in the GDR are predominantly viewed through the prism of educational and labor migration While such research has undoubtedly produced valuable insights it often fails to adequately account for the implicit Eurocentrism methodological nationalism and anti communist bias inherent in Western knowledge production This study offers a different approach Through biographical portrayal it unfolds the life stories of African freedom fighters who lived in exile in the GDR and ultimately remained in reunified Germany with the main case study being a Malawian activist who was expelled from East to West Berlin Recounting his experiences along with those of some South African exiles chief among them a former medical worker for the ANC s armed wing the study ethnographically

reconstructs the multiple entanglements between the Second and Third worlds from the vantage point of the politically displaced within the concrete historical contexts of African decolonization the struggle against the Malawian Banda dictatorship and the struggle against South African apartheid

Sense of Wonder Bill Schelly, 2018-04-17 A fascinating story of growing up as a gay fan of comic books in the 1960s building a fifty year career as an award winning writer and interacting with acclaimed comic book legends Award winning writer Bill Schelly relates how comics and fandom saved his life in this engrossing story that begins in the burgeoning comic fandom movement of the 1960s and follows the twists and turns of a career that spanned fifty years Schelly recounts his struggle to come out at a time when homosexuality was considered a mental illness how the egalitarian nature of fandom offered a safe haven for those who were different and how his need for creative expression eventually overcame all obstacles He describes living through the AIDS epidemic finding the love of his life and his unorthodox route to becoming a father He also details his personal encounters with major talents of 1960s comics such as Steve Ditko co creator of Spider Man Jim Shooter writer for DC and later editor in chief of Marvel Comics and Julius Schwartz legendary architect of the Silver Age of comics
