Entre commerce du sexe et utopie Daniel Welzer-Lang, 1998 Enlightenment Contested Jonathan I. Israel, 2006-10-12 Jonathan Israel presents the first major reassessment of the Western Enlightenment for a generation Continuing the story he began in the best selling Radical Enlightenment and now focusing his attention on the first half of the eighteenth century he returns to the original sources to offer a groundbreaking new perspective on the nature and development of the most important currents in modern thought Israel traces many of the core principles of Western modernity to their roots in the social political and philosophical ferment of this period the primacy of reason democracy racial equality feminism religious toleration sexual emancipation and freedom of expression He emphasizes the dual character of the Enlightenment and the bitter struggle between on the one hand a generally dominant anti democratic mainstream supporting the monarchy aristocracy and ecclesiastical authority and on the other a largely repressed democratic republican and materialist radical fringe He also contends that the supposedly separate French British German Dutch and Italian enlightenments interacted to such a degree that their study in isolation gives a hopelessly distorted picture A work of dazzling and highly accessible scholarship Enlightenment Contested will be the definitive reference point for historians philosophers and anyone engaged with this fascinating period of human development The Moral Sex Lieselotte Steinbrügge, 1995 How was the nature of women redefined and debated during the French Enlightenment Instead of treating the Enlightenment in the usual manner as a challenge to orthodox ideas and social conventions Lieselotte Steinbrugge interprets it as a deviation from a position staked out in the seventeenth century namely the mind has no sex Simone de Beauvoir's The Second Sex Ruth Evans, 2024-06-04 Acknowledged by many feminists as the single most important theoretical work of the twentieth century Simone de Beauvoir s The Second Sex 1949 nevertheless occupies an anomalous place in the feminist canon Yet it has had an undeniable impact not only on the development of critiques of sexual politics but on twentieth century western thinking about the concept of woman in general This collection of six new essays by scholars from the disciplines of French English literature history cultural criticism feminist theory and philosophy makes a valuable contribution to the task of re reading and reassessing this enormously influential text for a new generation of feminist readers and also for cultural theorists for whom the question of the feminine is at the centre of key debates in philosophy and postmodernity The contributors provide a significantly new rethinking of the place of The Second Sex in cultural history and of women and representation the role of fictions and the problem of ethical agency in the work of the leading intellectual woman of this age Libertinage et utopies sous le règne de Louis XIV Lise Leibacher-Ouvrard, 1989 André Téchiné William Marshall, 2007-07-15 This is the first full length monograph in English about one of France's most important contemporary filmmakers perhaps best known in the English speaking world for his award winning Les Roseaux sauvages Wild Reeds of 1994 This study locates Andr T chin within historical and cultural contexts that include the Algerian War May 1968 and contemporary globalization and the influence of Roland Barthes Bertolt Brecht Ingmar Bergman William Faulkner and the cinematic French New Wave The originality of T chin s sixteen feature films lies in his subtle exploration of sexuality and national identity as he challenges expectations in his depictions of gay relations the North African dimensions of contemporary French culture and the center periphery relationship between Paris and especially his native southwest

Sex Trafficking in Southeast Asia Trude Jacobsen, 2016-11-10 This book brings an important new perspective to the study of sex trafficking by considering the different types of social contracts which existed in the past that had sexual labour or activity as an inherent component It outlines the nature of these social institutions marriage temporary marriage debt bondage and slavery which were recognized in local law carried no stigma and endured for long periods It discusses how labour pledged in return for a loan of cash or as a result of a punishment dictated by the state often included sexual labour and how this could take the form of servicing the master of the house his guests or foreign travellers who paid the debt holder for the privilege and how even wives of different ranks temporary or permanent and children were pledged as sureties for loans The book which covers the modern states of Myanmar Thailand Laos Cambodia and Vietnam argues that cultural norms are not static that sexual contracts are more complicated than simply marriage or prostitution and that as trafficking for sexual purposes increases those engaging in humanitarian intervention should improve their knowledge of the historical underpinnings of cultural understandings of familial and contractual obligations
