The Routledge Handbook of Shakespeare and Memory Andrew Hiscock, Lina Perkins Wilder, 2017-08-09 The Routledge Handbook of Shakespeare and Memory introduces this vibrant field of study to students and scholars whilst defining and extending critical debates in the area The book begins with a series of Critical Introductions offering an overview of memory in particular areas of Shakespeare such as theatre print culture visual arts post colonial adaptation and new media These essays both introduce the topic but also explore specific areas such as the way in which Shakespeare's representation in the visual arts created a national and then a global poet The entries then develop into more specific studies of the genre of Shakespeare with sections on Tragedy History Comedy and Poetry which include insightful readings of specific key plays The book ends with a state of the art review of the area charting major contributions to the debate and illuminating areas for further study The international range of contributors explore the nature of memory in religious political emotional and economic terms which are not only relevant to Shakespearean times but to the way we think and read now From Shakespeare to Autofiction Martin Procházka , 2024-04-23 From Shakespeare to Autofiction focuses on salient features of authorship throughout modernity ranging from transformations of oral tradition and the roles of empirical authors through collaborative authorship and authorship as cultural capital to the shifting roles of authors in recent autofiction and biofiction In response to Roland Barthes removal of the Author and its substitution by Michel Foucault's author function different historical forms of modern authorship are approached as multiplicities integrated by agency performativity and intensity in the theories of Pierre Bourdieu Wolfgang Iser Gilles Deleuze and Félix Guattari The book also reassesses recent debates of authorship in European and Latin American literatures It demonstrates that the outcomes of these debates need wider theoretical and methodological reflection that takes into account the historical development of authorship and changing understandings of fiction performativity and new media Individual chapters trace significant moments in the history of authorship from the early modernity to the present from Shakespeare's First Folio to Latin American experimental autofiction and discuss the methodologies reinstating the author and authorship as the irreducible aspects of literary process Praise for From Shakespeare to Autofiction In this collection a multicultural group of literary scholars analyse a rich array of authorship types and models across four centuries After decades of liquid poststructuralist concepts it is refreshing and inspiring to think through such diversity of authorship strategies from oral culture through sociological constructs to self referential and autobiographical ontological games that writers play with us their readers Pavel Dr bek University of Hull

Global King Lear William R. Rampone, Eric S. Mallin, 2024-12-26 Global King Lear provides a kaleidoscopic view of multinational adaptations of King Lear with a focus on productions across Asia and Eastern Europe By approaching Shakespeare's great tragedy as a global phenomenon its signature themes become context dependent and culture specific whilst avoiding simplistic appeals to the play's universality International scholars of literature and theatre explore those culturally specific interpretations as new plays films and critical contributions on their own terms As a film in Japan King Lear becomes a meditation on contemporary eldercare and the question of celebrity on a stage in Hungary the play emerges as a ferocious invective against domestic abuse in another performance in Hungary the play considers childhood trauma and a crisis in maternal care and a pan Asian Lear emerges out of multiple adaptations on stage and screen in India Japan and China Taken together these readings are dismantled as merely derivative interpretations and cast instead as theatrical and cinematic engines of transformation Despite the play's focus on the cultural context of England this volume highlights King Lear's position as one of the most popular texts for international directors and playwrights to explore their own nations troubles and challenges This collection focuses on the potential for King Lear to be performed adapted and understood anew by multiple audiences in a range of mediums and contexts

Marina Warner and the Ethics of Telling Silenced Stories Lisa Propst, 2020-12-17 Efforts to fight back against silencing are central to social justice movements and scholarly fields such as feminist and postcolonial studies But claiming to give voice to people who have been silenced always risks appropriating those people's stories Lisa Propst argues that the British novelist and public intellectual Marina Warner offers some of the most provocative contemporary interventions into this dilemma Tracing her writing from her early journalism to her novels short stories and studies of myths and fairy tales Propst shows that in Warner's work features such as stylized voices and narrative silences tales that Warner's books hint at but never tell question the authority of the writer to tell other people's stories At the same time they demonstrate the power of literature to make new ethical connections between people inviting readers to reflect on whom they are responsible to and how they are implicated in social systems that perpetuate silencing By exploring how to combat silencing through narrative without reproducing it Marina Warner and the Ethics of Telling Silenced Stories takes up an issue crucial not just to literature and art but to journalists policy makers human rights activists and all people striving to formulate their own responses to injustice
