

NEW ORLEANS SHAOLIN-DO

Student Training Manual

Introduction

Welcome to New Orleans Shaolin. Enclosed in this document are some materials to assist you in your introduction to the kwoon, or school. You will find the school rules, training tips, information on rank advancement, tournaments, and information on all of the school programs. We hope you will refer to the manual often and we encourage you to keep a journal for yourself wherein you can keep notes on your training, your forms, and to set and track your goals.

At New Orleans Shaolin, we teach an art called Shaolin-Do, or "the way of Shaolin". Shaolin-Do is more than a martial art. It is a path. It follows a 1500 year old trail all the way back to the original Shaolin temples of China. The monks at these temples learned to incorporate martial arts into their spiritual training only so they could maintain their way of life uninhibited by violent outsiders. It is not merely a way of fighting but a path to the mastery of life. Tournaments and ranking are not emphasized in this style, though both exist within it. Our founder Grandmaster Sin Kwang The' teaches health, longevity and appreciation of life. As we like to say, being an excellent fighter and being capable of defending your family and loved ones is just one of the benefits. The practice is the goal.

Mission

To preserve and embody the mental and physical practices of the Shaolin temples.

Shaolin-Do, however, is more than just a fighting art; it is a way of perfecting oneself. By attempting to master these ancient styles of fighting, we actually come closer to mastering ourselves. This happens as you are learning to make your body perform tasks and postures that it has never attempted before, your mind begins to realize that you can do anything and this wonderful idea pervades every aspect of your life! This is not to imply that after you have trained with Shaolin-Do for a time that you will be able to do anything! The key is

Fu Overview Shaolin Kung Fu was created by combining Buddhist Yogic and Taoist influences originally established within the Shaolin Tradition at the Shaolin Temple in Honan by Bodhidharma in 500 A D Original Shaolin Kung Fu evolved and was perpetuated until now in secrecy by the priest and monks at the several main Shaolin Temples that had been established through the centuries The only times the Shaolin martial arts were taught outside the temple was when the rulers of China became ruthless in their treatment of the Chinese people These teachings were pretty much limited to what the people needed to successfully revolt A large amount of the original Shaolin teachings influences and origins were never presented to anyone but the monks These missing Shaolin influences include some self defense methods and strategies much of the physical health training methods and almost none of the spiritual Yogic and Buddhist influences These missing influences have been made available to us from the existing original Shaolin who are in exile in Taiwan from the violent communist takeover of the Chinese mainland in 1949 Also from Shaolin who were operating in Tibet prior to the violent invasion and takeover by the communist Chinese of Tibet in 1950 Since World War II the communist Chinese have effectively eliminated the ancient Taoist Buddhist and Shaolin knowledge and spiritual belief systems on the mainland due to their commitment to obtaining a modern industrial atheist society This communist influence has been responsible for considerable additional loss of the Shaolin influence on Chinese kung fu Chinese kung fu is now called Wu Shu and has become acrobatic as it lost its efficient martial influences Another unacceptable exception was made at the Shaolin Temple at Honan where due to the income from tourism they have allowed some modern Buddhism to be presented for the tourists as Shaolin This book breaks the norm of modern kung fu manuals in that it presents and explains these missing Shaolin influences     If You Like Quentin Tarantino... Katherine Rife,2012-10-01 If You Like If You Like Quentin Tarantino draws on over 60 years of cinema history to crack the Tarantino code and teach readers to be confidently conversant in the language of the grindhouse and the drive in What fans love about director Quentin Tarantino is the infectious enthusiasm that s infused into every frame of his films And Tarantino films lend themselves exceptionally well to reference and recommendation because each itself is a dense collage of references and recommendations Spaghetti westerns blaxploitation revenge sagas car chase epics samurai cinema film noir kung fu slasher flicks war movies and today s neo exploitation explosion There s an incredible range of vibrant and singularly stylish films to discover If You Like Quentin Tarantino is an invitation to connect with a cinematic community dedicated to all things exciting outrageous and unapologetically badass     Black Belt ,1980-07 The oldest and most respected martial arts title in the industry this popular monthly magazine addresses the needs of martial artists of all levels by providing them with information about every style of self defense in the world including techniques and strategies In addition Black Belt produces and markets over 75 martial arts oriented books and videos including many about the works of Bruce Lee the best known marital arts figure in the world     Essays on Martial Arts and Meditation Gavin Mitchell,2010-08-25 Essays on martial arts and meditation attempting to provide as broad as possible an overview of the arts and drawing from many unorthodox
