Children of South Africa Dolores M. Luiz,1994 Research Methods for Adult Educators in Africa Bagele Chilisa,Julia Preece,2005 This book explores rationales for research methodologies embedded in African contexts Issues discussed include contexts for adult education research in Africa philosophical and theoretical foundations of inquiry philosophical perspectives and their implications for research doing a literature review getting started with a research proposal quantitative research designs and carrying out surveys summarising and analysing survey data the nature of qualitative research carrying out qualitative studies combining qualitative and quantitative methods research ethics action research feminist research approaches and writing up and disseminating research Accountability in education: meeting our commitments UNESCO,2017-10-30 The second edition of the Global Education Monitoring Report GEM Report presents the latest evidence on global progress towards the education targets of the UN Sustainable Development Goals With hundreds of millions of people still not going to school and many not achieving minimum skills at school it is clear education systems are off track to achieve global goals The marginalized currently bear the most consequences but also stand to benefit the most if policy makers pay sufficient attention to their needs Faced with these challenges along with tight budgets and increased emphasis on results oriented value for money countries are searching for solutions Increased accountability often tops the list The 2017 8 GEM Report shows the entire array of approaches to accountability in education It ranges from countries unused to the concept where violations of the right to education go unchallenged to countries where accountability has become an end in itself instead of a means to inclusive equitable and high quality education and lifelong learning for all The report emphasizes that education is a shared responsibility While governments have primary responsibility all actors schools teachers parents students international organizations private sector providers civil society and the media 0 3 have a role in improving education systems The report emphasized the importance of transparency and availability of information but urges caution in how data are used It makes the case for avoiding accountability systems with a disproportionate focus on narrowly defined results and punitive sanctions In an era of multiple accountability tools the report provides clear evidence on those that are working and those that are not Back cover

Multilingualism and Exclusion Pol Cuvelier,2007 Multilingual Education Yearbook 2021 Anthony A. Essien,Audrey Msimanga,2021-05-04 This edited book attempts to foreground how challenges and complexities between policy and practice intertwine in the teaching and learning of the STEM subjects in multilingual settings and how they policy and practice impact on educational processes developments and outcomes The unique feature of this book thus lies in its combination of not just language issues in the teaching and learning of the STEM subjects but also in how these issues relate to policy and practice in multilingual contexts and how STEM research and practice may inform and shape language policies and their implementation in multilingual contexts This book is of interest to stakeholders involved in STEM education such as researchers undergraduate and graduate students tertiary level teachers teacher educators curriculum developers as well as other professionals with responsibilities in STEM education subjects The book is written in a way that is accessible to a wide range of backgrounds including those who are in language education
