The Belt and Road Initiative Francisco José B. S. Leandro, Paulo Afonso B. Duarte, 2020-03-03 This book is an analysis of the developments associated with the Belt and Road Initiative B RI five years after Xi Jinping announced both the Silk Road Economic Belt SREB and the 21st Maritime Silk Road 21MSR Together these two dimensions constitute the B RI providing the so called Chinese project of the century with regional inter regional and global reach This book aims at assessing the impact of the B RI in all these dimensions and levels of influence This is a current and promising theme not only in the short and medium terms but also within a broader timescale reflecting Chinese strategic thinking itself since Chinese philosophy and culture are oriented towards long term and inter generational perspectives Likewise both the title of this publication and the way it has been organized result from the empirical perception that China asserts a conservative attitude towards foreign affairs redesigned in multiple dimensions to create a perception of domestic unity and global prestige In this vein of thought the B RI is already influencing and will continue to influence directly or indirectly the current economic and political order

Alternative Fuels and Their Utilization Strategies in Internal Combustion Engines Akhilendra Pratap Singh, Yogesh C. Sharma, Nirendra N. Mustafi, Avinash Kumar Agarwal, 2019-10-10 This book covers alternative fuels and their utilization strategies in internal combustion engines The main objective of this book is to provide a comprehensive overview of the recent advances in the production and utilization aspects of different types of liquid and gaseous alternative fuels In the last few years methanol and DME have gained significant attention of the energy sector because of their capability to be utilized in different types of engines This book will be a valuable resource for researchers and practicing engineers alike

Economic History of a Divided Europe Ivan T. Berend, 2020-02-28 This book presents the sharp regional differences within the integrating European continent Four regions Northwestern Europe Southern Europe Central Europe and Eastern Southeastern Europe represent high medium and relatively less developed levels of economic advancement These disparities have emerged as a result of historical differences that produced and reinforced cultural and behavioral differences The author examines the distinctions between the regions looks at how these differences transpired and became so retrenched and answers the question of why some countries were able to elevate to higher levels of economic development while others could not This book is unique in that it provides a timely historical analysis of the main causes of the most pressing conflicts in Europe today Readers will come away from this book with a deeper understanding of the sharp divergence in economic standing between the four different regions of Europe as well as knowledge about how institutional corruption and other cultural features exacerbated these variations The book also offers a better understanding of major European Union conflicts between member countries and between member and nonmember countries as well as the rise of autocratic regimes in certain countries The book begins with a short history of European integration throughout European civilization and then goes on to discuss the modern reality of integration and attempts to homogenize the Continent that divided into four different macro regions It will primarily appeal to scholars researchers and students studying Europe from various fields including economics business history political science and sociology as well as a general readership interested in Europe's past present and future Amir Sjarifoeddin Rudolf Mrázek,2024-10-15 Amir

Sjarifoeddin explores the experiences of a central figure in the Indonesian revolution whose life mirrored the idealism and contradictions of the anti colonial and post war world of twentieth century Indonesia Amir was born at the edge of an empire in a time of change Imprisoned by the Dutch for anti colonialism he was sentenced to death by the Japanese for anti fascism He survived to become the prime minister of the new Indonesian republic Disappointed by the direction the Indonesian elites were taking Amir turned increasingly to the left In 1948 he joined the armed uprising against both the Indonesian government and the corruption of the national revolution and was captured and executed as a traitor In Amir Sjarifoeddin Rudolf Mr zek unveils the human dimensions of a figure who is widely mythologized but often poorly understood Through Sjarifoeddin's life it is possible to study the moral ambiguity and complexities of the political revolutions of the twentieth century Encounters on the Opposite Coast: The Dutch East India Company and the Nayaka State of Madurai in the Seventeenth Century Markus Vink,2015-10-14 In Encounters of the Opposite Coast Markus Vink provides a narrative of the first half century of cross cultural interaction between the Dutch East India Company VOC one of the great northern European chartered companies and Madurai one of the great southern Nayakas and successor states of the Vijayanagara empire in southeast India c 1645 1690 A shared interest in trade and at times converging political objectives formed the unstable foundations for a complex relationship fraught with tensions a mixture of conflict and coexistence typical of the age of contained conflict Drawing extensively on archival materials Markus Vink covers a topic neglected by both Company historians and their Indian counterparts and sheds important light on a black hole in South Indian history Investment Protections in U.S. Trade and Investment Agreements United States.
