Salvation Through Temptation Benjamin E. Heidgerken,2021-06-04 Salvation through Temptation describes the development of predominant Greek and Latin Christian conceptions of temptation and of the work of Christ to heal and restore humankind in the context of that temptation focusing on Maximus the Confessor and Thomas Aquinas as well developed examples of Greek and Latin thought on these matters Maximus and Thomas represent two trajectories concerning the woundedness of human emotionality in the wake of the primordial human sin Heidgerken argues that Maximus stands in essential continuity with earlier Greek ascetic theology which conceives of the weakness of fallen humankind in demonological categories so that the Pauline law of sin is bound to external demonic agents that act upon the human mind through thoughts desires and sensory impressions For Thomas on the other hand this wound consists primarily of an internal disordering of the faculties that results from the withdrawal of original grace concupiscence or the fomes peccati Yet even in this framework the devil plays a significant role in Thomas s account of postlapsarian temptation On the basis of these differing frameworks for human temptation Heidgerken demonstrates the centrality of Christ s exemplarity in the Greek account and the centrality of Christ s moral perfections in the Latin account As a consequence of these emphases the Greek tradition of Maximus places distinct limits on the ability of human emotionality even that of Christ to be perfected in this life whereas Thomas s approach allows Christ to completely embody a perfected form of human emotionality in his earthly life Reciprocally Thomas s account of Christ s moral perfections and virtue places distinct limits on his affirmation of Christ s experience of postlapsarian temptation whereas Maximus s account allows for Christ to experience interior forms of temptation that more closely mirror the concrete moral experiences and circumstances of fallen human beings Salvation through Temptation recommends a retrieval of early ascetic theology and demonology as the best contemporary systematic and ecumenically viable approach to Christ s temptation and victory over the devil

The Masked Church Charlie Lightsey, 2021-06-15 Much of today s Church is masked in fear that something is out there lurking while oblivious of their identity and delegated authority and blatant denial or prideful dismissal of hypocritically masked carnal appetites Holy Spirit seeks permission to help crucify

As we yield daily in true repentance masks are lifted to reveal eye opening Truth Through constant communion in Abiding Presence we relinquish the right to prodigally do as we please and grant Him permission to help crucify appetites that we stamped a visible watermark Otherwise the realm of darkness appeals to appetites and inclinations entices WHEN moments and tempts us to trespass the line of demarcation into sin As we welcome Presence to rest upon to stir Presence within carnal appetites lose their appeal as Christ is progressively formed in us and we embrace Jesus co missioned compelling Christ Mandate to present a Kingdom response to all matters and carry discern release and convey Presence in our homes workplace and marketplace Jesus was only tested in all matters as we in thought yet the Masked Church has traditionally considered everything temptation based on our inclination to sin Jesus had no such inclination because of kratos strength He developed to initially resist temptation with the Word then totally avoid temptation with an Empowered Immunity upon presentation as Christ Where there s no appetite and subsequently no inclination there s no temptation only tests Through watching and praying in Abiding Presence kratos progressively develops Jesus Resurrection Immunity to carnal appetites and temptation Come join the lifelong journey to live in constant communion with Holy Spirit and put your soul and flesh in subjection to your spirit Just as Jesus didn t select a single disciple from among the religiously masked of His day neither will He return for a hypocritically Masked Church in the Rapture
