Resources in Education ,1998-04 Research in Education ,1974 Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office,1965 Includes Part 1 Number 2 Books and Pamphlets Including Serials and Contributions to Periodicals July December Reading Comprehension Research and Testing in the U.S. Arlette Ingram Willis,2012-09-10 This book challenges traditional sanctioned and official histories of reading comprehension by examining how ideological and cultural hegemony work to reproduce dominant ideologies through education in general and reading comprehension research and testing specifically Willis analyzes the ideological and cultural foundations that underpin concepts theories research tests and interpretations and connects these to the broader social and political contexts within U S history in which reading comprehension research and testing have evolved The reconstruction of a history of reading comprehension research and testing in this way demystifies past and current assumptions about the interconnections among researchers reading comprehension research and standardized reading comprehension tests A promising vision of the future of reading comprehension research and testing emerges one that is more complex multidimensional inclusive and socially just Reading Comprehension Research and Testing in the U S aims to revolutionize how reading comprehension is conceived theorized tested and interpreted for all children This is a critically relevant volume for educational researchers teacher educators school administrators teachers policy makers and all those concerned with school literacy and educational equity American Journal of Education and College Review ,1877 Vol 25 is the report of the commissioner of education for 1880 v 29 report for 1877 Black American Students in An Affluent Suburb John U. Ogbu,2003-02-26 John Ogbu has studied minority education from a comparative perspective for over 30 years The study reported in this book jointly sponsored by the community and the school district in Shaker Heights Ohio focuses on the academic performance of Black American students Not only do these students perform less well than White students at every social class level but also less well than immigrant minority students including Black immigrant students Furthermore both middle class Black students in suburban school districts as well as poor Black students in inner city schools are not doing well Ogbu s analysis draws on data from observations formal and informal interviews and statistical and other data He offers strong empirical evidence to support the cross class existence of the problem The book is organized in four parts Part I provides a description of the twin problems the study addresses the gap between Black and White students in school performance and the low academic engagement of Black students a review of conventional explanations an alternative perspective and the framework for the study Part II is an analysis of societal and school factors contributing to the problem including race relations Pygmalion or internalized White beliefs and expectations levelling or tracking the roles of teachers counselors and discipline Community factors the focus of this study are discussed in Part III These include the educational impact of opportunity structure collective identity cultural and language or dialect frame of reference in schooling peer pressures and the role of the family This research focus does not mean exonerating the system and blaming minorities nor does it mean neglecting school and society factors Rather Ogbu argues the role of community forces should be incorporated into the discussion of the academic achievement gap by researchers theoreticians policymakers educators and minorities themselves who genuinely want to improve the academic achievement of African American children and other minorities In Part IV Ogbu presents a summary of the study s findings on community forces and offers recommendations some of which are for the school system and some for the Black community Black American Students in an Affluent Suburb A Study of Academic Disengagement is an important book for a wide range of researchers professionals and students particularly in the areas of Black education minority education comparative and international education sociology of education educational anthropology educational policy teacher education and applied anthropology

Current Index to Journals in Education ,1996 Family-School Collaboration in Multi-Tiered Systems of Support , Gone Home Karida L. Brown,2018-08-06 Since the 2016 presidential election Americans have witnessed countless stories about Appalachia its changing political leanings its opioid crisis its increasing joblessness and its declining population These stories however largely ignore black Appalachian lives Karida L Brown s Gone Home offers a much needed corrective to the current whitewashing of Appalachia In telling the stories of African Americans living and working in Appalachian coal towns Brown offers a sweeping look at race identity changes in politics and policy and black migration in the region and beyond Drawn from over 150 original oral history interviews with former and current residents of Harlan County Kentucky Brown shows that as the nation experienced enormous transformation from the pre to the post civil rights era so too did black Americans In reconstructing the life histories of black coal miners Brown shows the mutable and shifting nature of collective identity the struggles of labor and representation and that Appalachia is far more diverse than you think
