AUTHOR SHANNON KILKENNY

From an early age, planning events was a natural for Kilkenny. From the personal pleasure of gathering people she created a long-time career and made an art out of the business. With her penchant for writing just trailing her love for events, her second career surfaced. Not long ago the two careers were merged and this book is the magical result.

Shannon is currently teaching classes and leading workshops. Watch for her next writing endeavor, a book dedicated to "greening" the hospitality and event planning industry. Along with her book, she is in the process of creating a curriculum to train event planners how to incorporate environmental awareness in their decision making process.
