

Shark Dialogues

a n o v e l

"Great
storytelling!
An epic
feminine saga . . .
as enduring as
the pearls her
extraordinary women
pass down through the generations."

Ecocritical Explorations in Literary and Cultural Studies Patrick D. Murphy, 2009-07-15 In Ecocritical Explorations Patrick D Murphy explores environmental literature and environmental cultural issues through both theoretical and applied criticism He engages with the concepts of referentiality simplicity the nation state and virtual reality in the first section of the book and then goes on to interrogate these issues in contemporary environmental literature both American and international He concludes his argument with a discussion of the larger frames of family dynamics and unnatural disasters such as hurricanes and global warming ending with a chapter on the integration of scholarship and pedagogy in the classroom with reference to his own teaching experiences Murphy's study provides a wide ranging discussion of contemporary literature and cultural phenomena through the lens of ecological literary criticism giving attention to both theoretical issues and applied critiques In particular he looks at popular literary genres such as mystery and science fiction as well as actual disasters and disaster scenarios Ecocritical Explorations in Literary and Cultural Studies is a timely contribution to ecological literary criticism and an insightful look into how we represent our relationship with the environment Islands Magazine, 1999-07 Magical Feminism in the Americas: Resisting Female

Marginalisation and Oppression through Magic Abu Shahid Abdullah, 2025-01-07 The book aims to show the way magical feminism resists female marginalisation and oppression in the Americas Dealing with multiple victimisation of women in the Americas who have suffered not only because of their gender but also their race ethnicity political ideology social status financial insecurity and such magical feminism provides a voice to them so that they can speak about their marginalisation and victimisation In other words by using magical feminism these female authors attempt to give a voice to the oppressed women enabling them to resist and challenge the traditional female role and to raise their voices against various social and political issues The subversive and transgressive power of magical feminism enables the oppressed women to break patriarchal constraints and to reverse the traditional power structure By creating an imaginary realm through traditions local beliefs and rituals myth magic and the spirits of the dead ancestors as guides magical feminist technique functions as a survival strategy for women in traumatic and oppressive situations and provides them consolation The project includes a total of eight novels from African American Gloria Naylor s Mama Day Latin American Isabel Allende s The House of the Spirits Native American Louise Erdrich s Tracks Chicana Ana Castillo s So Far from God North American Gail Anderson Dargatz s The Cure for Death by Lightning Central American Gioconda Belli s The Inhabited Woman Hawaiian American Kiana Davenport s Shark Dialogues and Cuban American Cristina Garc a s Dreaming in Cuban background The World Has Changed Alice Walker, 2010-04-20 The National Book Award and Pulitzer Prize winning author s fascinating and far reaching conversations with acclaimed writers and thought leaders Spanning more than three decades this collection of fascinating discussions between Alice Walker and renowned writers leaders and teachers explores the changes that Walker has experienced in the world as well as the change she herself has brought to it Compelling literary and cultural figures such as Gloria Steinem Pema Chodron and Howard Zinn represent a different stage in Walker s artistic and spiritual development Yet they also offer an unprecedented look at her career and political growth Noted literary scholar Rudolph Byrd sets Walker s work into context with an introductory essay as well as with a comprehensive annotated bibliography of her writings Read as separate pieces these conversations offer vivid glimpses of Walker s energetic personality Taken together they offer a sense of her marvelous engagement with her world Kirkus Reviews Homonationalism, Femonationalism and Ablenationalism Angeliki Sifaki, C.L. Quinan, Katarina Lončarević, 2022-04-28 This edited volume engages with a range of geographical political and cultural contexts to intervene in ongoing scholarly discussions on the intersection of nationalism with gender sexuality and race The book maps and analyses the racially and sexually normativising power of homonationalist femonationalist and ablenationalist dynamics and structures three strands of research that have thus far remained separate Scholars and practitioners from different geopolitical and academic contexts highlight research on the complexities of women s LGBTQ communities and disabled individuals engagements with and subsumption within nationalist projects Homonationalism Femonationalism and Ablenationalism Critical Pedagogies Contextualised offers added value for those researching and teaching on topics related to gender sexuality disability post coloniality and nationalism and includes new pedagogical strategies for addressing such timely global phenomena This dynamic interdisciplinary volume is ideal for those teaching gender studies and for students and scholars in gender studies international relations and sexuality studies An Interethnic Companion to Asian American Literature King-Kok Cheung, 1997 A survey of Asian American literature

Narratives of Inequality Melissa Kennedy, 2017-11-08 This book reveals the economic motivations underpinning colonial neocolonial and neoliberal eras of global capitalism that are represented in critiques of inequality in postcolonial fiction Today s economic inequality suffered disproportionately by indigenous and minority groups of postcolonial societies in both developed and developing countries is a direct outcome of the colonial era imposition of capitalist structures and practices The longue dur e world systems approach in this study reveals repeating patterns and trends in the mechanics of capitalism that create and maintain inequality As well as this it reveals the social and cultural beliefs and practices that justify and support inequality yet equally which resist and condemn it Through analysis of narrative representations of wealth accumulation and ownership structures of internal inequality between the rich and the poor within cultural communities and the psychology of capitalism that engenders particular emotions and behaviour this study brings postcolonial literary economics to the neoliberal debate arguing for the important contribution of the imaginary to the pressing issue of economic inequality and its solutions Reimagining the American Pacific Rob Wilson, 2000 Discusses the makings of the American Pacific locality location identity as space and ground of cultural production and the way this region can be linked to Asia and Pacific as well as to American mainland New Essays in Ecofeminist Literary Criticism Glynis Carr, 2000 The present volume gathers new essays in ecofeminist literary criticism and theory that extend this critical trajectory for ecocriticism in the context of social eco feminist theory and practice BOOK JACKET
