The Red Swan John Bierhorst, 1976-05-01 The best of the American Indian myths are works of art blending form and content into an organic whole in which the great themes of human experience are interwoven much as they are in a memorable short story or novella But if the underlying themes are similar the metaphorical and narrative conventions are vastly different and it is this aesthetic gap that critic John Bierhorst intends to bridge in this companion volume to his well known anthology In the Trail of the Wind American Indian Poems and Ritual Orations Over forty cultures including the Eskimo the Iroquois the Navajo the Maya and the Bororo are here represented by sixty four carefully selected myths and tales Yet The Red Swan will be valued not so much for its scope or its quantity as for the superb quality of the stories themselves Among the classic narratives included are The Fight of the Quetzalcoatl Aztec The Rival Chiefs Kwakiutl The Hungry Old Woman Anambe Two Friends Greenland Eskimo and The Red Swan Chippewa A number of the translations the work of such ethnographers as Franz Boas James Teit and George Bird Grinnell have been left untouched others have been expertly revised and some of the selections all of which deserve to be much better known appear in English for the first time

A Modern Theory of Language Evolution Carl J. Becker, 2004-12 The discipline of linguistics is a perfect example of the limitations of the modern academy The combination of social taboos that make certain subject matter unfit for general knowledge and discovery and the ever narrowing specialization of scientists leaves us with an intellectual institution that can no longer do anything but apply repair and justify the dogma of Victorian Cosmology that is the rule all must follow Linguistics should be one of the most interesting subjects considering it is the study of our most valuable and revealing cultural asset language However recent publications from the linguistic department for public consumption have been some of the most trivial and boring intellectual expositions that have ever been put between two covers Using the entire database of science we look at the acquisition of language and how it forms our cultural perspective on life including theories of language evolution We develop the theory of the evolution of language from song one of the few suppositions that Charles Darwin actually got right From this basis we move on to the roots of Proto Indo European which we call Bhear Tongue Bhear Tongue is essentially the Eurasian language family dimly perceived by one of the greatest linguists of the twentieth century Joseph Greenberg From this perspective we can now retell the tribal stories from Iberia to Siberia showing a common origin and motivation for human science and religion
