Divulgativos Franceses (1736 -1748) Anónimo, 2012-06-23 La colección de textos divulgativos ofrecida en este volumen

como su propio nombre indica constituye una documentación que a diferencia de otra literatura masónica presenta la particularidad de ir dirigida al público en general con la intención al menos aparente de dar a conocer el funcionamiento y la razón de ser de una Institución que se presenta a la sociedad con un halo de misterio El lector podrá comprobar quizás con cierta sorpresa que se encuentra ante unos escritos muy asequibles elaborados a modo de relato en los que cabe la anécdota y el humor y en los que las consideraciones técnicas no tienen tanto lugar como en los Catecismos o Rituales Sin embargo esta circunstancia característica de las obras francesas que salieron a la luz en la época que consideramos les concede una personalidad particular pues sin dejar de aportar información muy interesante acerca del modo de trabajar de las Logias del momento por su vitalidad constituyen un testimonio de la mentalidad de los miembros que las componen Los ocho textos presentados tanto en su versión original como en su traducción al español cobran una importancia especial por contribuir junto con el resto de publicaciones que entre 1730 y 1760 se realizaron en Francia a cubrir una laguna en las publicaciones masónicas que en la época se daban en Europa
