

Principal interview questions and answers

This Principal interview profile brings together a snapshot of what to look for in candidates with a balanced sample of suitable interview questions.

Principal Interview Questions

Hiring a Principal typically involves a small army of people. The hiring committee decides the essential requirements based on existing needs and with state and district goals in mind. The same committee oversees the hiring process. Candidates for the position of Principal at a school interview with the committee first, then return for one-on-one interviews or an interview with the core administrative team.

Use these interview questions to start purposeful, open-ended conversations with your candidates at the initial committee interview. The questions will help you evaluate your candidates' practical experience as educators and their overall ability to lead teaching and learning at your school.

There is no role at a school with more pressure and more visibility than the Principal. These interviews are critical for evaluating soft skills as rigorously as the hard skills. Yes, you'll be looking at their prior effectiveness in improving student outcomes. But can they hire, train, and develop teachers? How do they communicate with parents? Can they shape the school's culture in a positive way, creating a safe, challenging, and disciplined space for learning? What are some indicators of success for principals at this school? Evaluate your candidates against your metrics for success.

Operational and Situational questions

- How much do you know about this school's improvement plan? What do you think you can contribute to that plan?
- Describe your vision of an effective (elementary/middle/high) school in as much detail as possible.
- How would you describe your leadership style?
- How would you rate yourself as a disciplinarian?
- Recall a time a situation needed to be handled with great sensitivity and tact. What was the issue? What was the outcome?
- How do you empower teachers to be leaders?
- List some traits of highly effective teachers. How does this inform the way you hire them?
- Recall a time you made an unpopular decision. What was the reaction? How did you handle it?
- Some teachers are complaining about a lack of administrative support. How would you

Principal Interview Questions And Scoring Guide:

Instructional Consultation Teams: Collaborating For Change Gravois, Rosenfield, 2013-01-11 While there is considerable evidence for the effectiveness of school consultation teams for interventions with difficult or at risk students relatively little has been written on the implementation of such teams This book details that process and describes the important features of the Instructional Consultation Team including methods and instruments for evaluating student progress and system functioning Instructional Consultation Teams functions as a handbook for change The authors convincingly argue that the improvement of schools response to at risk students requires major modifications in the school culture and to engender that change professionals need special skills Bringing together literature on school consultation and school change this volume enables the school based professional who takes the role as change facilitator not only to implement new more effective services but also to ensure that the services become established functions of the school system

Conversations With Principals Andrew E. Dubin, 2006-01-06 Conversations With Principals Issues Values and Politics is a unique compilation of interviews with principals at the elementary middle and secondary levels Unlike any other text in Educational Administration this book allows students the unusual opportunity to experience the inner voice of principals as they discuss the many decisions they make and the multitude of people they must engage Key Features Places students at the front line of leadership This book provides a simple straightforward and honest view of the realities of the principalship as experienced by those who assume these roles Each chapter offers a rare view into the minds of educational leaders as they honestly discuss their feelings and strategies behind their leadership practices Provides personal profiles and school demographic data The professional background of each principal is given so students can better understand their journey from an educator to a leadership position In addition each interview conveys a different school situation to demonstrate the complexity of the profession and allow readers to understand how different school contexts impact and affect decisions that are made Connects students to the material At the conclusion of each chapter comprehensive and probing questions role playing activities and leadership projects engage readers and connect them to the role of principal An analysis section provided after each interview reflects on the leader s approaches and decision making in a theoretical context that helps students link theory to application in a very practical and relevant way Intended Audience This is an excellent supplementary text for a variety of graduate courses in Educational Administration such as Introduction to School Administration Educational Leadership Principalship Foundations in Educational Organization Effective Leadership and Organizational Dynamics of the American Educational System
