Terjesen, 2017-01-26. This handbook addresses the current state and practice of school psychology with a focus on standards unique to Australia including historical, legal, ethical, practical and training factors. It provides a compilation of the most current research based practices as well as guidelines for evidence based assessment and intervention for common conditions e.g. autism, depression, learning disabilities and for delivering appropriate services to targeted student populations e.g. LGBT, gifted, medical issues. Chapters discuss the application of national and international school psychology practices within the Australian educational and psychological structure. The handbook also examines the lack of formal resources specific to Australia's culture and psychology systems with its unique mix of metropolitan cities and the vast geographic landscape that spans regional and remote areas. It offers numerous case studies and innovative school mental health programs as well as recommendations for professional development and advocacy that are unique to Australian school psychology. Topics featured in this Handbook include Evidence based assessment and intervention for dyscalculia and mathematical disabilities. Identification and management of adolescent risk taking behaviors and addictions. Understanding and responding to crisis and trauma in the school setting. Prevention and intervention for bullying in schools. Class and school wide approaches to addressing behavioral and academic needs. The role of school psychologists in the digital age. Practical advice for school psychologists facing complex ethical dilemmas. The Handbook of Australian School Psychology is a must have resource for researchers, scientist practitioners and graduate students in child and school psychology, social work and related fields that address mental health services for children and adolescents. Educational Assessment in a Time of Reform Coert Loock, Vanessa Scherman, 2019-11-20. Educational Assessment in a Time of Reform provides background information on large scale examination systems more generally and the South African examination specifically. It traces the reforms in the education system of South Africa since 1994 and provides a description of the advances in modern test theory that could be considered for future standard setting endeavours. At the heart of the book is the debate on whether the current standard of education in Africa is good enough. If not then how can it be improved. The aim of this book is to provide a point of departure for discussions on standard setting, quality assurance, equating of examinations and assessment approaches. From this point of departure recommendations for practices in general and the exit level Grade 12 examination results in particular can be made This book is ideal reading for principals teachers academics and researchers in the fields of educational assessment measurement and evaluation Teachers' Identities and Life Choices Pattie Luk-Fong,2012-11-08 This book discusses issues related to teachers identities and life choices when globalisation and localisation are enmeshed It examines how competing cultural traditions and contexts acted as resources or and constraints in framing teachers identities and their negotiations in the family and the work domains according to their gender positioning their roles in the family such as husband wife father mother brother sister son and daughter and roles in the school such as principal senior teacher or regular teacher Contrary to an essentialist approach to identity and culture teachers stories show that their identities and life choices were hardly free choices but were often part and parcel of the culture and contexts in which they were embedded Teachers identities are found to be fluid complex hybrid and multifaceted Using Hong Kong as a case study this book provides not only traces of the continuity and changes of Confucian self and cardinal relationships but also a glimpse of how educational reform as neo capitalist discourses in the workplace interacts with Confucian cultural traditions creating new hybrid practices problems or possibilities or both in the school and in the daily lives of teachers Trauma and Grief
