

CHAPTER 3Analyzing Changes in Financial Position*SECTION 3.1 REVIEW QUESTIONS (page 59)

1. A business transaction is a financial event that causes a change in financial position.
2. Answers will vary. An example of a transaction could be a new office desk that is purchased and paid for in cash.
3. Answers will vary. An example of an event that is not a transaction could be the owner examining some new computer equipment that is demonstrated by a salesperson.
4. A source document is the original record of a transaction that provides the accounting department with the information it needs related to the transaction.
5. Examples of source documents include hydro bills, telephone bills, cheque copies, store receipts, cash register tapes, and credit card slips.
6. After the accounting entries have been completed, the source documents are filed for future reference.
7. The objectivity principle states that accounting will be recorded on the basis of objective evidence. This means that transactions will be recorded based on facts not on personal opinions or feelings. For example, the best objective evidence for the cost of cellphone use is the bill from the cellphone company.
