Improving Adult Literacy Instruction National Research Council, Division of Behavioral and Social Sciences and Education, Committee on Learning Sciences: Foundations and Applications to Adolescent and Adult Literacy, 2012-04-26 A high level of literacy in both print and digital media is required for negotiating most aspects of 21st century life including supporting a family education health civic participation and competitiveness in the global economy Yet more than 90 million U S adults lack adequate literacy Furthermore only 38 percent of U S 12th graders are at or above proficient in reading Improving Adult Literacy Instruction synthesizes the research on literacy and learning to improve literacy instruction in the United States and to recommend a more systemic approach to research practice and policy The book focuses on individuals ages 16 and older who are not in K 12 education It identifies factors that affect literacy development in adolescence and adulthood in general and examines their implications for strengthening literacy instruction for this population. It also discusses technologies for learning that can assist with multiple aspects of teaching, assessment and accommodations for learning. There is inadequate knowledge about effective instructional practices and a need for better assessment and ongoing monitoring of adult students' proficiencies, weaknesses, instructional environments and progress which might guide instructional planning. Improving Adult Literacy Instruction recommends a program of research and innovation to validate, identify the boundaries of and extend current knowledge to improve instruction for adults and adolescents outside school. The book is a valuable resource for curriculum developers, federal agencies such as the Department of Education, administrators, educators and funding agencies.

Reconceptualizing Physical Education through Teaching Games for Understanding Joy Butler, 2012-08-08. By using Teaching Games for Understanding (TGfU) as a catalyst for thinking about ontological and epistemological issues in Physical Education, the teachers, researchers and authors of this book have become ambassadors for new ideas that challenge some of our entrenched educational values. We are proud to be able to share some of their pioneering research which we believe will be of great interest to others in the field who are interested in constructivist, student-centred and holistic approaches to teaching and learning in games education.

Student Learning in South Asia Halil Dundar, Tara B  teille, Michelle Riboud, Anil Deolalikar, 2014-05-30. This book analyzes the performance of South Asian educational systems and identifies the causes and correlates of student learning outcomes. Drawing on successful initiatives both in the region and elsewhere in the world, it offers an insightful approach to setting priorities for enhancing the quality of school education in South Asia.

Preventing Tobacco Use Among Youth and Young Adults United States. Public Health Service. Office of the Surgeon General, 2012. This Surgeon General's report details the causes and the consequences of tobacco use among youth and young adults by focusing on the social, environmental, advertising and marketing influences that encourage youth and young adults to initiate and sustain tobacco use. This is the first time tobacco data on young adults as a discrete population have been explored in detail. The report also highlights successful strategies to prevent young people from using tobacco.
