Author

Jane Austen is surely one of the most popular English writers from the 19th century. Her lively characters, engaging plots, and critical eye to depict social classes, definitely engaged her readers from various time periods, considering her books are all-time classics. Jane Austen was born in Hampshire, England in 1775.

Austen came from a middle-class family. Her family was not wealthy, but it was well-connected. She had a very good education, and her parents encouraged literacy and a creative mind. She soon started writing short stories and romantic parodies in her teenage years. Austen had a great relationship with her sister Cassandra. All we know of her and her stories were thanks to letters written among sisters.

Austen never married as well, as her sister Cassandra. Austen devoted her life solely to her novels. Although it was not until her thirties that she first published Sense and Sensibility and Pride and Prejudice. England's society was engaged by her books. Soon after, Mansfield Park and Emma followed. Her books were considered masterpieces. Sadly, her career was cut short due to her death in 1817 when she was only 41 years old.

Context

Austen was heavily influenced by the time period she was born in, the Romanticism Era. Her stories are the epitome of romanticism. It included lively characters whose emotions were definitely more open than in books written in the time period before her. Her focus was set on depicting middle-class characters in everyday situations. Austen shows she is very fond of natural scenery, something very common in her books and in the Romanticism Era.

She was also a feminist, due to the fact that in her book she describes Elizabeth as a woman who speaks her mind and is not afraid of social differences, depicting her for who she is and what she is capable of. I see this as a reflection of herself and probably other women
