Cruising World, 1987-01 Running the Table L. Jon Wertheim, 2008-10-03 For fans of Bringing Down the House and Positively Fifth a Sports Illustrated writer shares the story of a heavyset bipolar and charming pool hustler In most sports the pinnacle is Wheaties box notoriety But in the world of pool notoriety is the last thing a hustler desires Such is the dilemma that faces one Danny Basavich an affable generously proportioned Jewish kid from Jersey who flounders through high school until he discovers the one thing he excels at the felt and hits the road Running the Table spins the outrageous tale of Kid Delicious and his studly if less talented set up man Bristol Bob Never was there a more entertaining or mismatched pair of sidekicks as together they go underground into the flavorfully seamy world of pool to learn the art of the hustle and experience the highs and lows of life on the road Their four year odyssey takes them from Podunk pool halls to slick urban billiard rooms across America as they manage one night to take down as much as 30 000 only to lose so much the next night that they lack gas money to get home With every stop the action gets hotter the calls get closer and Delicious's prowess with a cue stick becomes known more and more widely Ultimately Delicious sheds his cover once and for all and becomes professional pool's biggest sensation since Minnesota Fats A tremendously satisfying road story What makes Running the

Table so special is not the pool prowess of its protagonist but the unlikely bond between two wildly different young men who find each other through an exhilarating often infuriating game Los Angeles Times
