Congregational Evangelism in Philippians Mark J. Keown, 2009-02-19 Did Paul want his congregations to pick up the ministry of evangelism or did he envisage himself and other specialist proclaimers continuing the ministry of the gospel Dr Keown begins by outlining the contours of differing responses to this question ranging from exclusively specialist evangelism to believers full participation in evangelic mission He then explores the question through exegetical analysis of Philippians He argues persuasively that one essential element of the rhetorical appeal of the letter is an injunction to the believers in Philippi to continue to preach the gospel with renewed unity and in the face of pagan opposition He suggests that Paul envisaged specialist proclaimers leading the evangelical mission and equipping general believers to share the gospel as one dimension of living in the world Course of Study for the Common Schools of Illinois Illinois Education Association.
