Coordination and Management Guide A. Samer Ezeldin,Ahmed M. Alhady,2018-05-30 This book provides construction practitioners with the knowledge they need to successfully coordinate and manage construction projects Coordination and management are essential functions in the building procedure Recent research has demonstrated that poor or inadequate coordination is the best that is accomplished on construction sites Nevertheless not many writers of construction project management have examined this essential subject Between project goals and the reality on the ground exist a huge number of conditions that can affect the progress of a project and that is the reason a dynamic ramification amid the development time frame is significant This book provides construction practitioners with the knowledge they need to successfully coordinate and manage construction projects It highlights different construction processes required to enhance their practical performance in particular and further the construction industry in general The Software Audit Guide John W.

Helgeson,2009-06-01 Audit now there s a word that can strike terror into your heart Whether it s the IRS looking over your shoulder or a quality tool utilized by your company it requires accountability A software audit monitors the development process and provides management with an independent view of the software development status The purpose of this book is to remove the terror and error while improving the audit process Software is not produced on a production line the only thing that is the same on all software projects is that there is input and output Everything in the middle is customized for the project at hand Thus The Software Audit Guide does not contain a one size fits all approach It gives a choice of areas to audit and different questions that should be asked within these areas This book provides a flexible user friendly checklist of more than 1 300 questions designed to stimulate creative thinking that will ultimately result in the best possible software audit
