Smith,2022-01-03 This memoir of a man who was instrumental in shaping the vibrant Five Points neighborhood that is now Denver s only Historic Cultural District begins with his roots His parents fled the Jim Crow laws of Texas on an eight month 1903 wagon train into Indian Territory where Leroy Smith was born in the oldest black town of what had by then become Oklahoma His personal Great Migration began when he walked across the border into Arkansas Working and vagabonding his way northeast to be rescued when he received a bus ticket from a friend who suggested he come west to Utah for a decent job on the railway Working the trains Leroy was drawn to Denver which he had learned was the Harlem of the West There he met Lulu Ann Green convinced her in a whirlwind courtship to marry and join him as a partner in a tiny shop they rented for ten dollars a month Leroy bought black newspapers hair products and vinyl music on his Chicago train runs that Lulu sold to Denver s fast growing black population By 1941 Leroy could quit the railroad to create the Rhythm Record Shop in a two story building he purchased in the busy Wellton Street business district known as The Points In 1944 he held his first dance concert which his ingenuity handily saved from disaster and began booking the great names of rock and roll rhythm and blues gospel jazz etc to cities in Colorado and surrounding states Often referred to as the Mayor of Five Points he was known as a cool band leader who sold race music black hair products and quality goods within the red lines Smith was also a gifted sportsman who hunted fished and pitched on black baseball teams He soon added the words and Sporting Goods to the already expanded merchandise found in his shop offering fishing and hunting licenses with gear He became Colorado s first black outfitter licensed to sell firearms with his sports equipment He was named an honorary game warden and after lobbying for an officer manned lockup only three doors away an honorary police officer An audacious masonic leader Leroy fought city hall to bring black Shiners to his ingeniously desegregated Denver hotels for conventions He paid to advertise his ventures on the radio by becoming his own disc jockey on his midnight Rockin with Leroy show His sharp instincts for enterprise and entertainment lifted him into business cultural mining and other endeavors that inspired the diverse neighborhood to action His political inclinations led him to success in opening the second floor of his building as the Voters Club a swinging night club with live music and famed visitors which he used to rally African Americans to vote and fight for their American civil rights All proceeds from sale of this scrapbook of photos letters and memories are destined solely for the support of Denver s Black American West Museum Heritage Center Crisis
