Introduction In today s finance literature the main goal of company owners and managers is to maximize the market value of their companies There are three main decisions that determine the value of companies These decisions Akg 2010 5 Investment decisions Financing decisions Dividend policy decisions When making decisions regarding the company s investment financing and dividend distribution the financial manager must investigate which decision will maximize the company value and implement it Dividend policy includes decisions about how much of the company s profit earned at the end of the year will be distributed to shareholders as dividends and how much will not be distributed and left within the company Investors prefer to invest their savings in stocks that will provide regular and high dividend yields However expecting the company to pay high dividends and expecting it to grow are two conflicting goals A company that distributes high dividends will do less self financing The dividend policy determined by company managers should not hinder the growth of the company and should also meet the dividend expectations of the shareholders Demirel 2014 93 Investors will prefer to invest their savings in the stocks of companies that pay stable dividends If companies pay dividends consistently investors will perceive the company as being in good shape This study aims to determine whether companies announcing to the public that they will pay dividends will cause abnormal returns in the stocks of the relevant companies In other words the impact of companies decision to distribute dividends on the value of the relevant companies was investigated According to the efficient markets hypothesis in semi strong form efficient markets firms cannot obtain abnormal returns on their stocks with any information they disclose to the public With this study it will be determined how the company value is affected when companies dividend distribution decisions are announced to the public Moreover it will be revealed to what extent the capital market in Turkey is effective in semi strong form Corporate Governance, Capital Markets, and Capital Budgeting Baliira Kalyebara, Sardar M. N. Islam, 2013-07-31 The primary contribution of this book is to integrate the important disciplines which simultaneously impact the investment appraisal process The book presents a study that develops a new approach to investment appraisal which uses a multiple objective linear programming MOLP model to integrate the selected disciplines which include capital markets corporate governance and capital budgeting The research covers two case studies one in the e commerce sector and another in the airline industry in which the above disciplines are integrated Readers from the areas of corporate governance regulation and accounting would find the survey of different approaches and the new integrated optimization approach particularly useful Reshaping Entrepreneurial Education Within an Industry 4.0 Context Naidoo, Vannie, Verma, Rahul, 2024-01-17 Higher education is constantly changing and advancing and the integration of technology and its transformative potential remains elusive for many universities globally While other industries have surged forward with digitization higher education has been slow to completely embrace technology driven outcomes Reshaping Entrepreneurial Education Within an Industry 4 0 Context sheds light on the barriers preventing widespread technological adoption and the profound changes that Industry 4 0 brings to education As the fourth industrial revolution Industry 4 0 continues to unfold this book delves into how this phenomenon is reshaping the field of education This book presents a comprehensive analysis of how digital technology and capabilities are becoming integral to building more flexible and adaptive tertiary education systems in regions like Latin America and the Caribbean It also highlights the challenges faced by online learning and the urgent need for a fundamental rethinking of higher education to ensure equal access to quality education This publication addresses a diverse audience making it an essential resource for students academicians and higher education administrators seeking an in depth understanding of Reshaping Entrepreneurial Education Within an Industry 4 0 Context For practitioners it provides valuable insights to enrich their work in the realm of higher education The book covers a broad spectrum of key themes including the impact of the 4th industrial revolution on entrepreneurial education the transformative power of online learning in global universities and the hurdles faced in adopting digital education Additionally the experts behind this research delve into how information and communication technologies ICTs are influencing educational policies and teaching methods worldwide as well as the role of metaverse technologies in designing curricula for entrepreneurial education Strategic Management in the Public Sector Trevor H.
