Sour Sweet By Timothy Mo:

Sour Sweet Timothy Mo,1992 En kinesisk indvandrerfamilie kommer i 1960'erne til London for at starte deres egen restaurant men det er ikke problematisk at tilpasse sig en fremmed kultur og i baggrunden lurder den kinesiske mafia Timothy Mo

Elaine Yee Lin Ho,2000 This collection brings together studies of popular performance and politics across the nineteenth century offering a fresh perspective from an archivally grounded research base It works with the concept that politics is performative and performance is political The book is organised into three parts in dialogue regarding specific approaches to popular performance and politics Part I offers a series of conceptual studies using popular culture as an analytical category for social and political history Part II explores the ways that performance represents and constructs contemporary ideologies of race nation and empire Part III investigates the performance techniques of specific politicians including Robert Peel Keir Hardie and Henry Hyndman and analyses the performative elements of collective movements Just Postmodernism

,2025-02-03 The essays collected here represent the latest thinking on postmodernism in a number of key areas economics law postcolonialism literature feminism film philosophy One of the issues common to the volume is the desire to cast postmodernism in a predominantly ethical just light and the opportunities and obstacles postmodernism might place in the path of the description of and search for justice The collection highlights the most recent trends in postmodern thinking the turn away from postmodernism as mere discourse and language games to a more politically and socially engaged forum The book will be of interest to all students of contemporary cultural social and critical thought Frank Joseph Shulman,Anna See Ping Leon Shulman,2001-01-01 A descriptively annotated multidisciplinary cross referenced and extensively indexed guide to 2 395 dissertations that are concerned either in whole or in part with Hong Kong and with Hong Kong Chinese students and emigres throughout the world , Cheeky Fictions Susanne Reichl,Mark Stein,2005

(Re-)mapping London Vanessa Guignery, 2008 A Passion for Cultural Studies Ben Highmore, 2017-09-16 The culture that infiltrates our lives can provoke a range of feelings and afflictions culture can move you get under your skin and stir up your emotions Ben Highmore uses these feelings or passions to explore the culture that surrounds us and uses it as a basis to introduce and explain the key ideas debates and theories that are central to cultural studies Impressively accessible and packed with absorbing examples from everyday life this compact book is the ideal entry point into cultural studies The chapters examine problematic and complex issues that are core to cultural studies looking at the experience of migration the nature of the media the lure of commodities the world of taste and the culture of love Cleverly written in a way that s easy to follow and enjoyable to read the text gives a sense of the discipline as a way of thinking rather than an amalgamation of theories and whets the appetite of all those interested in cultural studies Whether you re a student who s new to the field or a seasoned scholar seeking a fresh idea about what cultural studies can do this clear and concise text encourages you to become truly passionate about cultural studies British Literature in Transition, 1980-2000 Eileen Pollard, Berthold Schoene, 2018-12-20 The literature of twentieth century Britain s final twenty years represents a crash course in transitional history In the aftermath of the 1970s the nation s hopes of becoming more efficient were high leading to the fundamental domestic shake up that was Margaret Thatcher s neoliberal revolution 1979 90 Following the end of the Cold War Europe was undergoing radical rejuvenation while the world as a whole began to thrive on new levels of connectivity and proximity brought through rapid advances in communication technology Later in the 1990s Britons were asked to countenance not only internal devolution but also the crystallisation of a brand new European and global order This volume shows how British literature recorded contemporaneous historical change It traces the emergence and evolution of literary trends as well as enduring transitional shifts in genre tone style and thematic preoccupation The Making of London S. Groes, 2015-12-04 London has become the focus of a ferocious imaginative energy since the rise of Thatcher The Making of London analyses the body of work by writers who have committed their writing to the many lives of a city undergoing complex transformations tracing a major shift in the representation of the capital city Cultures in Movement Martine Raibaud, Ionut Untea, Micéala Symington, 2015-02-05 The contributors to this volume encourage a re thinking of the very notion of culture by examining the experiences situations and the representations of those who chose or were forced to change cultures from the nineteenth century to the present day Beyond a simple study of migration forced or otherwise this collective work also re examines the model of integration As recent entrants into new social settings may be perceived as affecting the previously accepted social equilibrium mechanisms encouraging or inhibiting population flows are sometimes put in place From this perspective integration may become less a matter of internal choice than an external obligation imposed by the dominant political power in which case integration may only be a euphemism for cultural uniformity The strategies of cultural survival developed as a reaction to such a rising tide of cultural uniformity can be seen as necessary points of departure for an ever growing shared multiculturalism A long term voluntary commitment to make cultural boundaries more flexible and allow a more engaged individual participation in the process of defining the self and finding its place within a culture in movement may represent a key element for cultural cohesion in a globalized world Global Fragments ,2007-01-01 While the world seems to be getting ever smaller and globalization has become the ubiquitous buzz word regionalism and fragmentation also abound This might be due to the fact that far from being the alleged production of cultural homogeneity the global is constantly re defined and altered through the local This tension pervading much of contemporary culture has an obvious special relevance for the new varieties of English and the literature published in English world wide Postcolonial literatures exist at the interface of English as a hegemonic medium and its many national regional and local competitors that transform it in the new English literatures Thus any exploration of a globalization of cultures has to take into account the fact that culture is a complex field characterized by hybridization plurality and difference But while global or transnational cultures may allow for a new cosmopolitanism that produces ever changing fluid identities they do not give rise to an egalitarian global village an asymmetry between centre and periphery remains largely intact albeit along new parameters The essays collected in this volume offer readings of literary theoretical and filmic texts from the postcolonial world These texts are read as attempts to articulate the global with the local from a perspective of immersion in the actual diversity of life worlds focusing on such issues as consumption identity politics and modes of affiliation In this sense they are global fragments locally refracted figurations of an experience of world wide interconnectedness Remembering Iris Murdoch J.

Meyers,2013-05-03 This annotated edition of the unpublished letters that Iris Murdoch wrote to Jeffrey Meyers includes her discussion of writers from Conrad to Updike her quarrel with Rebecca West and her difficulty with Alzheimer s With both scholarly insight and personal reflection this volume will deepen our understanding of Murdoch s complex life and work

On the Road to Baghdad, Or, Traveling Biculturalism Gönül Pultar,2005 About the Book This is a collection of essays on fiction written in English Spanish and Bengali that has emerged recently This fiction is seen to reflect biculturalism that is the amalgam of two cultures that are both hegemonic in their own ways This approach provides insight into the works discussed by uncovering elements of the the seemingly other non Euroculture and elevates both cultures to the same level Authors discussed in the essays include Black British Caryl Phillips Chicana Sandra Cisneros Chinese American Maxine Hong Kingston Cuban American Dolores Prida Danish Izak Dinesen Greek Americans Nikos Papandreou and Catherine Temma Davidson Kenyan Ngugi wa Thiong o Japanese American John Okada New Zealander Patricia Grace Peruvian Jos Maria
