Magu, 2021-01-02 This book explores foreign policy developments in post colonial Africa A continental foreign policy is a tenuous proposition yet new African states emerged out of armed resistance and advocacy from regional allies such as the Bandung Conference and the League of Arab States Ghana was the first Sub Saharan African country to gain independence in 1957 Fourteen more countries gained independence in 1960 alone and by May 1963 when the Organisation of African Unity OAU was formed 30 countries were independent An early OAU committee was the African Liberation Committee ALC tasked to work in the Frontline States FLS to support independence in Southern Africa Pan Africanists in alliance with Brazzaville Casablanca and Monrovia groups approached continental unity differently and regionalism continued to be a major feature Africa s challenges were often magnified by the capitalist democratic versus communist socialist bloc rivalry but through Africa's use and leveraging of IGOs the UN UNDP UNECA GATT NIEO and others to advance development the formation of the African Economic Community OAU's evolution into the AU and other alliances belied collective actions even as Africa implemented decisions that required cooperation uti possidetis maintaining colonial borders containing secession intra and inter state conflicts rebellions and building RECs and a united Africa as envisioned by Pan Africanists worked better collectively      India and China Geeta Kochhar, Snehal Ajit Ulman, 2020-07-19 This book looks at the changing dynamics of diplomacy of the two emerging global powers India and China It examines trade relations cultural ties and economic engagements of both countries and their shifting influence in the region surrounding them This volume takes an in depth look at the trade and economic strategies of India and China through the prism of soft power diplomacy It reflects on the challenges the two countries face over bilateral trade negotiations BRICS and China's Silk Road project along with other issues of foreign policy The book underlines the decisive role of the soft power approach and greater people to people contact in the global strategies of India and China and in fostering greater cooperation in the region The book will be of great interest to researchers and students of international relations political science public policy and international communications It will also be useful for think tanks policy makers and general readers who are interested in the India China relationship and the politics of soft power diplomacy      Queering The Terminator David Greven, 2017-06-15 The Terminator film series is an unlikely site of queer affiliation The entire premise revolves around both heterosexual intercourse and the woman's pregnancy and giving birth It is precisely the Terminator's indifference to both that signifies it as an unimaginably inhuman monstrosity Indeed the films overarching contention that humanity must be saved rooted as it is in a particular story about pregnancy and birth that exclusively focuses on the heterosexual couple and the family would appear to put it at odds with the political stances of contemporary queer theory Yet as this book argues there is considerable queer interest in the Terminator mythos The films provide a framework for interpreting shifting gender codes and the emergence of queer sexuality over the period of three decades Significantly the series emerges in the Reagan 80s which marked a decisive break with the sexual fluidity of the 70s As a franchise and on the individual basis of each film The Terminator series combines both radical and reactionary elements Each film reflects the struggles over gender and sexuality specific to its release At the same time the series foregrounds the intersection of technology and gender that has become a definitive aspect of contemporary experience A narrative organized around a conservative view of female sexuality and the family the Terminator myth is nevertheless a richly suggestive narrative for queer theory and gender studies      Compressed Air, 1927
