Introduction to Business; a Textbook for the First Course in Business on the Collegiate Level Raymond E. Glos, Harold Atherton Baker, 1959 Financial Management for Hospitality Decision Makers Chris Guilding, 2007-08-22

Financial Management for Hospitality Decision Makers is written specifically for those decision makers in the industry who need to be able to decipher accountant speak and reports in order to use this information to its best advantage and achieve maximum profits. The area of accounting and finance is a vital but often inaccessible part of the hospitality business. However, having the knowledge and the ability to use it properly makes all the difference to the turnover and success of a business. Financial Management for Hospitality Decision Makers is written specifically for those industry executives who need to be able to decipher, appreciate and utilise valuable financial management tools and techniques in order to realise maximum profits. Highly practical in its scope and approach, this book outlines the procedure and purpose behind various financial activities including budgeting, year-end financial statement analysis, double entry accounting, managing and analysing costs, working capital management and investment decision making. Demonstrates how an appropriate analysis of financial reports can drive your business strategy forward from a well-informed base. Clearly highlights the key financial issues you need to consider in a host of decision-making situations. Includes a range of problems to help readers appraise their understanding of concepts with solutions provided for lecturers at <http://textbooks.elsevier.com>. At all times the book rigorously applies itself to the specific needs of the hospitality decision maker, contextualising and explaining financial decision making and control in this light. Combining a user-friendly structure with frequent international cases, worked examples and sample reports to illuminate the theory, Financial Management for Hospitality Decision Makers is ideal for all students of hospitality as well as being a vital source of information for practitioners already in the industry. Bierwert,2019-11-01 A brilliant experimental ethnography Brushed by Cedar is destined to change the way anthropologists write about the people they befriend Crisca Bierwert has created a fresh poststructural ethnography that offers new insights into Coast Salish cultures Arguing against the existence of a master narrative she presents her understanding of these Native American peoples of Washington state and British Columbia Canada through poetic bricolage offering the reader a pastiche of rich cultural images Bierwert employs postmodern literary and social analyses to examine many aspects of Salish culture legends and their storytellers domestic violence longhouse ceremonies the importance and power of place and disputes over fishing rights Her reflections overlap as a dialogue would weaving throughout the book significant threads of Salish knowledge and creating a nonauthoritative text that nonetheless speaks knowingly This book represents the future of contemporary anthropology Unlike traditional ethnography it makes no attempt to portray a complete picture of the Coast Salish Instead Bierwert utilizes a critical and diffuse approach that defies colonial syncretic and hegemonic structures and applies advanced literary theory to the creation of ethnography Brushed by Cedar is an important guideline for anyone who writes about other cultures and will be especially useful to classes in the methodology and history of ethnography as well as to scholars specializing in Native American studies or oral literatures
