From the Edge Allison E. Fagan, 2016-07-14 Chicana/o literature frequently depicts characters who exist in a vulnerable liminal space living on the border between Mexican and American identities and sometimes pushed to the edge by authorities who seek to restrict their freedom. As this groundbreaking new study reveals, the books themselves have occupied similarly precarious positions as Chicana/o literature has struggled for economic viability and visibility on the margins of the American publishing industry while Chicana/o writers have grappled with editorial practices that compromise their creative autonomy. From the Edge reveals the tangled textual histories behind some of the most cherished works in the Chicana/o literary canon, tracing the negotiations between authors, editors and publishers that determined how these books appeared in print. Allison Fagan demonstrates how the texts surrounding the authors' words, from editorial prefaces to Spanish language glossaries, from cover illustrations to reviewers' blurbs, have crucially shaped the reception of Chicana/o literature. To gain an even richer perspective on the politics of print, she ultimately explores one more border space: studying the marks and remarks that readers have left in the margins of these books. From the Edge vividly demonstrates that to comprehend fully the roles that ethnicity, language, class and gender play within Chicana/o literature, we must understand the material conditions that governed the production, publication and reception of these works. By teaching us how to read the borders of the text, it demonstrates how we might perceive and preserve the faint traces of those on the margins.

Narrative and Critical History of America: The latter history of British, Spanish, and Portuguese America. 1889 Justin Winsor, 1889

Reinterpreting the Spanish American Essay Doris Meyer, 2010-06-25 Latin American women have long written essays on topics ranging from gender identity and the female experience to social injustice, political oppression, lack of educational opportunities and the need for female solidarity in a patriarchal environment. But this rich vein of writing has often been ignored and is rarely studied. This volume of twenty-one original studies by noted experts in Latin American literature seeks to recover and celebrate the accomplishments of Latin American women essayists. Taking a variety of critical approaches, the authors look at the way women writers have interpreted the essay genre, molded it to their expression and created an intellectual tradition of their own. Some of the writers they treat are Flora Tristan, Gertrudis Gómez de Avellaneda, Clorinda Matto de Turner, Victoria Ocampo, Alfonsina Storni, Rosario Ferré, Christina Peri Rossi and Elena Poniatowska. This book is the first of a two-volume project that reexamines the Latin American essay from a feminist perspective The second volume also edited by Doris Meyer contains thirty six essays in translation by twenty two women authors      The Dinner at Gonfarone's Peter Hulme, 2019 The Dinner at Gonfarone s covers five years in the life of the Nicaraguan poet Salom n de la Selva but it also offers a picture of Hispanic New York in the years around the First World War De la Selva is the forerunner of Latino writers like Junot D az and Julia lvarez
