Emerging Evangelicals James S. Bielo,2011-10

The Emerging Church movement developed in the mid 1990s among primarily white urban middle class pastors and laity who were disenchanted with America s conservative Evangelical sub culture It is a response to the increasing divide between conservative Evangelicals and concerned critics who strongly oppose what they consider overly slick corporate and consumerist versions of faith A core feature of their response is a challenge to traditional congregational models often focusing on new church plants and creating networks of related house churches Drawing on three years of ethnographic fieldwork James S Bielo explores the impact of the Emerging Church movement on American Evangelicals He combines ethnographic analysis with discussions of the movement s history discursive contours defining practices cultural logics and contentious interactions with conservative Evangelical critics to rethink the boundaries of Evangelical as a category Ultimately Bielo makes a novel contribution to our understanding of the important changes at work among American Protestants and illuminates how Emerging Evangelicals interact with the cultural conditions of modernity late modernity and visions of postmodern Christianity

Where Is God in a Messed-Up World? Roger Carswell,2009 If God exists and really is a God of love then why doesn t he stop the suffering and problems in our world Roger Carswell is realistic enough to admit that there are things God reveals to us and things he doesn t reveal He argues that the starting point is to find out who God is and figure out if he can be trusted even if we don t have all the answers God has not only been faithful to me he has been overwhelmingly kind incredibly merciful consistently good and unbelievably patient says Roger The author s own experience of suffering with depression and other real life stories that are included make this a compassionate look at one of the toughest questions about the Christian faith Moreover our questioning need not be a barrier to entrusting ourselves to God
