

Training & research visa (subclass 402)

Application process

V7.0
2014

The Training and Research visa (subclass 402) - Occupational Trainee stream is for people who require structured training to either enhance their skills in their current occupation, area of tertiary study or field of expertise. The types of occupational training include training or practical experience in the workplace required for you to obtain registration for employment in your occupation in Australia or in your home country.

PSA proposes to sponsor you for an agreed period (normally 15 months) to enable you to complete your pharmacy internship and gain registration as a pharmacist in Australia including the PSA intern training program, 1824 hours of supervised practice and the Pharmacy Board of Australia written and oral exams.

Further information on the 402 visa can be found on the Department of Immigration and Border Protection (DIBP) website at: www.immi.gov.au/visas/temporary-visa/402/occupational-trainee/

Eligibility criteria

You must be:

- be at least 18 years of age (exceptional circumstances exemptions may apply)
- have sufficient English to undertake the training program and to ensure work health safety standards are met
- have a genuine intention to stay temporarily in Australia to carry out the training for which they have been nominated
- have adequate private medical and hospital health insurance for the duration of your intended stay in Australia. This requirement may not apply to the visitor if their country has a reciprocal health care agreement with Australia, and they are enrolled with Medicare
- meet certain health requirements and character requirements
- show evidence of funds to contribute to the cost of living and studying in Australia
- must not engage in work in Australia (other than in relation to the holder's course of study or training).
