in late modernity highlighting local and global dimensions of citizenship in relation to issues of national religious ethnic and cultural identity As well as emphasising the role religious education has to play in citizenship education this book also covers wider issues such as state supported faith schools and cultural diversity in relation to common citizenship The authors argue that critical yet reflective approaches to religious education have a distinctive and valuable contribution to make to citizenship education Issues addressed within the study of religions are related to new forms of global and cultural citizenship as well as citizenship within the nation state Ultimately this stimulating and original collection highlights the challenges and possibilities for teaching and learning about religion religions and religious diversity within an inclusive educational practice

Culture and Environment ,2019-07-01 The inspiration for this book arose out of a large international conference the ninth World Environmental Education Congress WEEC organized under the theme of Culture Environment Similarly the theme for this book focuses on the Culture Environment nexus The book is divided into two parts Part 1 consists of a series of research studies from an eclectic selection of researchers from all corners of the globe Part 2 consists of a series of case studies of practice selected from a wide diversity of K Postsecondary educators The intent behind these selections is to augment and highlight the diversity of both cultural method and cultural voice in our descriptions of environmental education practice The chapters focus on a multi disciplinary view of Environmental Education with a developing view that Culture and Environment may be inseparable and arise from and within each other Cultural change is also a necessary condition and a requirement to rebuild and reinvent our relationship with nature and to live more sustainably The chapters address the spirit of supporting our praxis and are therefore directed towards both an educator and researcher audience Each chapter describes original research or curriculum development work

Using Test Data for Student Achievement Nancy W. Sindelar,2011-11-11 Schools are drowning in test data but many schools do little with test results other than sort students into various categories of proficiency or lack thereof Some educators feel testing has taken the joy out of teaching Others believe valuable instructional time has been lost as a result of testing Yet NCBL and other federal and state mandates have placed educators under increasing pressure to make certain all students meet standards on high stakes tests Now more than ever teachers and administrators need to embrace testing as a valuable classroom tool to guide instruction use efficient technological resources available for test scoring and analysis and profit from the benefits of test analysis to increase learning and achievement Using Test Data for Student Achievement shows educators step by step how to use test data to facilitate student learning The book combines research technology and Sindelar s experience as a teacher and administrator to provide practical and efficient ways to use test data to increase learning close achievement gaps and even raise test scores
