Caputo, 2014-07-01 Although halfway houses have been touted for years as affirmative rehabilitation locations that ready women for life in the outside world in this remarkable case study Gail Caputo shows how these places reinforce patterns of control and abuse that reaffirm the dependency and victimization of the inmates Based on observations made while living and working alongside women at a halfway house within the prison system in a city in the Northeast Caputo s analysis is anchored in the words and experiences of over a dozen women Organized according to the progression of levels residents traverse during their time in the house and the rules and behaviors associated with each level Caputo offers a riveting look at what passes for rehabilitation and reintegration in such places and delineates the many ways these women retain agency by resisting regulations designed to keep them in their place Antiblackness and the Stories of Authentic Allies Norman Kim, Carolyn Coker Ross, Mazella Fuller, Charlynn Small, 2024-09-18 This book examines the myriad of systemic challenges that are baked into the fabric of US society perpetuating and permeating antiblackness across some of its most trusted institutions Taken together the chapters in this book are a guide for scholars interested in social justice promotion within and on behalf of black communities complete with concrete tools and strategies for constructing authentic helping relationships Money, Autonomy and Citizenship Alessandro Pinzani, Walquiria Leão Rego, 2018-10-26 This book analyzes the impacts on peoples lives of the largest antipoverty social program in the world the Brazilian Bolsa Fam lia Program Created by the government of former Brazilian president Luiz In cio Lula da Silva Bolsa Fam lia has been for a time the largest conditional cash transfer program in the world serving more than 50 million Brazilians who had a monthly per capita income of less than USD 50 The program is regarded as one of the key factors behind the significant poverty reduction Brazil experienced during the first decade of the 21st century Bolsa Família is neither a credit scheme nor a loan It is a program of civic inclusion it aims to help citizens meet their most basic needs and sometimes just to survive Its goal is to create citizenship not to merely train the entrepreneurial spirit Having this in mind the authors of this book spent five years 2006-2011 interviewing more than 150 women registered in the program to see how the cash transfers impacted their everyday lives The authors concluded that the program produces significant social impacts in the beneficiaries lives by increasing their levels of moral economic and political autonomy promoting citizenship Money Autonomy and Citizenship The Experience of the Brazilian Bolsa Família will be of interest to both academic researchers and public agents involved with the study development and implementation of public policies aimed at reducing poverty and promoting social justice

The Unknown History of Jewish Women

Through the Ages Rachel Elior, 2023-05-22 The Unknown History of Jewish Women On Learning and Illiteracy On Slavery and Liberty is a comprehensive study on the history of Jewish women which discusses their absence from the Jewish Hebrew library of the People of the Book and interprets their social condition in relation to their imposed ignorance and exclusion from public literacy The book begins with a chapter on communal education for Jewish boys which was compulsory and free of charge for the first ten years in all traditional Jewish communities The discussion continues with the striking absence of any communal Jewish education for girls until the late nineteenth and early twentieth century and the implications of this fact for twentieth century immigration to Israel 1949-1959 The following chapters discuss the social cultural and legal contexts of this reality of female illiteracy in the Jewish community a community that placed a supreme value on male education The discussion focuses on the patriarchal order and the postulations rules norms sanctions and mythologies that in antiquity and the Middle Ages laid the religious foundations of this discriminatory reality

Dalit Autobiography: A Critical Study Dipak Giri, 2025-03-01 Dalit Autobiography is a distinctive literary form in the sense that it shifts from personal I to communal we This shifting from individual to communal differentiates such autobiographies from mainstream autobiographies where the autobiography mainly centers round personal experiences of the autobiographer concerned On the other hand Dalit Autobiographies deal not only with the individual writer but also with the community he or she belongs to Transformation of individualistic I into communal we makes such autobiographies completely distinctive literary form Such autobiography reflects not only Dalit life and suffering but also their voice of protest and resistance In this sense Dalit autobiographers are activists and writers as well Among Dalit autobiographers irrespective of gender there are innumerable autobiographies written by male and female Dalit writers The present book is my little endeavour to articulate the voice of Dalit autobiographers which is often neglected by the mainstream socio cultural life

A Versatile Gentleman Jan Opsomer, Geert Roskam, Frances B. Titchener, 2016-06-28 Plutarch was a brilliant Platonist an erudite historian a gifted author of highly polished literary dialogues a priest of Apollo at Delphi and a devoted politician in his hometown Chaeronea He felt confident in the most technical and specialized discussions yet was not afraid of rhetorical generalizations In his voluminous oeuvre he appears as a sharp polemicist and a loving father an ardent pupil but also a kind inspiring teacher a sober historian and a teller of wondrous tales In view of all these different personae erudite versatility is without any doubt a major characteristic of Plutarch s works A Versatile Gentleman is dedicated to Luc Van der Stockt professor emeritus of Greek language and literature at KU Leuven and a truly versatile gentleman The volume aims to do justice to his and Plutarch s versatility by discussing the Chaeronean from many different angles As such it sheds new light on the coherence of and the tensions in Plutarch s thinking and writing The Labyrinth of Ideas Navigating Liberal Arts Ashutosh Sharma, The Labyrinth of Ideas Navigating Liberal Arts is a thought provoking exploration of the contemporary relevance and challenges of liberal arts education This book delves into the value of liberal arts in fostering a well rounded adaptable mindset through diverse subjects and critical thinking skills It scrutinizes concerns about employability while emphasizing the enduring importance of lifelong learning By navigating the delicate balance between versatility and specialization the book invites readers to reflect on the societal significance of investing in liberal arts education to nurture informed thoughtful citizens Join the conversation within these pages to examine the role of liberal arts in the 21st century and its potential to shape individuals with versatile skill sets ready for a complex world

New Self, New World Philip Shepherd,2011-05-31 In the tradition of Quantum Healing and Guns Germs and Steel Philip Shepherd s New Self New World makes an intellectual inquiry into how we might restore freedom creativity and a sense of presence in the moment by rejecting several fundamental myths about being human New Self New World challenges the primary story of what it means to be human the random and materialistic lifestyle that author Philip Shepherd calls our shattered reality This reality encourages us to live in our heads self absorbed in our own anxieties Drawing on diverse sources and inspiration New Self New World reveals that our state of head consciousness falsely teaches us to see the body as something we possess and to try to take care of it without ever really learning how to inhabit it Shepherd articulates his vision of a world in which each of us enjoys a direct unmediated experience of being alive He petitions against the futile pursuit of the known self and instead reveals the simple grace of just being present In compelling prose Shepherd asks us to surrender to the reality of what is that enables us to reunite with our own being Each chapter is accompanied by exercises meant to bring Shepherd s vision into daily life what the author calls a practice that facilitates the voluntary sabotage of long standing patterns New Self New World is at once a philosophical primer a spiritual handbook and a roaming inquiry into human history A Standard Dictionary of the English Language Isaac Kaufman Funk,1906 From Eve to Dawn: A History of Women in the World Volume IV Marilyn French,2008-09-01 The conclusion of the remarkable four volume history by the New York Times bestselling author of The Women s Room Publishers Weekly In the twentieth century women became a force for change in part through suffrage and in part through mass organizing This final volume of Marilyn French s wide ranging survey offers a vibrant history of multiple political revolutions as well as the century s horrors including genocides and the atom bomb It ends with a thoughtful investigation into the various indigenous feminist movements throughout the world and asks what these peaceful revolutions might augur for the future Eschewing easy answers French suggests that the defining moral moments of the twenty first century should and will build from a global human rights agenda Science-fiction Studies ,1980 Confessional Subjects Susan David Bernstein,2000-11-09 Susan Bernstein examines the gendered power relationships embedded in confessional literature of the Victorian period Exploring this dynamic in Charlotte Brontë's Villette, Mary Elizabeth Braddon's Lady Audley's Secret, George Eliot's Daniel Deronda and Thomas Hardy's Tess of the d'Urbervilles, she argues that although women's disclosures to male confessors repeatedly depict wrongdoing committed against them, they themselves are viewed as the transgressors. Bernstein emphasizes the secularization of confession but she also places these narratives within the context of the anti-Catholic tract literature of the time. Based on cultural criticism, poststructuralism and feminist theory, Bernstein's analysis constitutes a reassessment of Freud's and Foucault's theories of confession. In addition, her study of the anti-Catholic propaganda of the mid-nineteenth century and its portrayal of confession provides historical background to the meaning of domestic confessions in the literature of the second half of the century. Reframing Trauma Through Social Justice Catrina Brown, 2024-07-31 This cross-disciplinary volume examines and reframes trauma as a social and political issue in the context of wider society, critiquing the widely accepted pathologizing of trauma and violence in current discourse. Rooted in critical social theory, this insightful text reinvents the critiques and analysis of the women's movement and the personal is political framing of trauma to unpack the mainstreaming of trauma discourse which has emerged today. Accomplished contributors address the social construction of femininity and masculinity in relation to trauma and violence and advocate for a broader framing of trauma away from the constrained focus on pathologizing and diagnosing trauma, individual psychologizing and therapy. Instead, the book offers a fresh and compelling look at how discursive resistance, alternative feminist and narrative approaches to emotional distress and the mental health effects of violence can be developed alongside community-based preventive, political and policy-based actions to create effective shifts in discourse, practice, policy and programming. This is fascinating reading for upper-level undergraduate and postgraduate students, researchers and academics in a broad range of fields of study including psychology, social work, gender and women's studies and sociology, as well as for professionals including policy makers, clinical psychologists and social workers.

Making and Faking Kinship Caren Freeman, 2011-11-22 In the years leading up to and directly following rapprochement with China in 1992, the South Korean government looked to ethnic Korean Chosŏn-jok brides and laborers from northeastern China to restore productivity to its industries and countryside. South Korean officials and the media celebrated these overtures not only as a pragmatic solution to population problems but also as a patriotic project of reuniting ethnic Koreans after nearly fifty years of Cold War separation. As Caren Freeman's fieldwork in China and South

Korea shows the attempt to bridge the geopolitical divide in the name of Korean kinship proved more difficult than any of the parties involved could have imagined Discriminatory treatment artificially suppressed wages clashing gender logics and the criminalization of so called runaway brides and undocumented workers tarnished the myth of ethnic homogeneity and exposed the contradictions at the heart of South Korea s transnational kin making project Unlike migrant brides who could acquire citizenship migrant workers were denied the rights of long term settlement and stringent quotas restricted their entry As a result many Chos njok migrants arranged paper marriages and fabricated familial ties to South Korean citizens to bypass the state apparatus of border control Making and Faking Kinship depicts acts of counterfeit kinship false documents and the leaving behind of spouses and children as strategies implemented by disenfranchised people to gain mobility within the region s changing political economy
