

Below is the Written Composition (Persuasive) from last year's released STAAR Test:

Write an essay stating your opinion on whether a person must acquire material possessions to be happy.

Many people attach themselves to "things" and then when those things are lost or are taken away – they are miserable. A person does not need to acquire material possessions to be happy.
Having a loving family is more important than acquiring material possessions. Imagine being able to attain every material thing imaginable, but having no one to enjoy the fun with each day. Being surrounded by people who support you and encourage you to be your best can even make you forget about the "things" that you don't have.
Often times people take being in good health for granted. Right now there are people in the cancer units and the burn units of hospitals around the country, wishing for better days. They would probably get rid of all of the material things they own just to be in better health.
Being surrounded by a loving family and having your health are far more important statuses in life than having a lot of material things that don't guarantee happiness. A person simply doesn't have to acquire material possessions to be happy.

Polarization Alan Fortuna,2019-07-22 The concept of polarization has become an important topic of interest in politics society and discourse around the world today In the European Union EU polarizing rhetoric has driven politics into divided camps on issues ranging from immigration to economic integration In the United States polarization has become a universal buzzword and significant research has been done on it as a political and sociological phenomenon But there has been little scholarly work on polarization as a communicative phenomenon since the late 1970s At the same time holes remain in contemporary rhetorical theory regarding the concept of the orator In short the discipline lacks a clearly defined category to deal with strategic communication by collective entities such as social and political movements This work fills both gaps at once It focuses on polarization as a rhetorical strategy that seeks to create division and solidarity in audiences In doing so it establishes and develops new theoretical categories for contemporary rhetoric updates and refines existing work on polarization as a communicative phenomenon and illustrates the utility of new concepts by providing a case study involving the tea party network in the United States

The Top Books of the Year Tea Released Persuasive Essays The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous engrossing novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of popular books, exploring the engaging narratives that have enthralled audiences this year. Tea Released Persuasive Essays : Colleen Hoover "It Ends with Us" This touching tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover skillfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can succeed. Tea Released Persuasive Essays : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This intriguing historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids compelling storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Tea Released Persuative Essays : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This evocative coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens spins a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, entrancing readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These bestselling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and gripping novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
