

Teacher Appreciation Letter from the Principal

Dear Ms. Kimberely,

I would like to congratulate you on completing 5 years in our college. We have been lucky enough to have a teacher of your caliber and character in our staff. I thank you on behalf of myself and the college committee for providing such quality lectures on Maths and Physics for students of class XI and XII.

I hope that you will continue your dream run in our college and we will be looking forward to your inputs on college management and cultural affairs as well. Thank you once again for everything.

Yours truly,

today's principals play a vital and ever expanding role in the process. This revised edition of a best-selling classic examines curriculum at the state, district, school, and classroom level and shows how effective principals can incorporate curriculum leadership into their organizational strategy to influence curriculum at each level. Based on the most up-to-date research, this resource includes an expanded list of references as well as updated information on the effects of No Child Left Behind, the influence of the Interstate School Leaders Licensure Consortium (ISLLC), the importance of state and national standards, and more. The authors examine new developments in curriculum standards, including the importance of content standards in statewide reforms, the gap between the taught and learned curriculum, the need for team leadership and professional learning communities. Packed with useful guidelines, this practical how-to guide helps principals collaborate with teachers and district leaders to create a more meaningful curriculum.

Pivot Principal Lori Perez, 2014-03-04 This book will guide the reader to develop a personal leadership style for entrepreneurial success. The practical strategies and implementation notes will guide the reader to define a personal success style, promote team support, and keep life in balance while working in a position that can feel chaotic at times. The book is written as a handbook filled with practicality, followed by reflection notes for the reader to engage in mindful leadership. The daily interactions of a site principal are critical to the success of a school to thrive academically and socially. Every minute of a leader's day can be an opportunity for success or failure, dependent upon the decisions made. Great decisions simply can not be made by burnt out, tired-out-of-touch administrators without a vision of success who haven't learned to prioritize. Keep kids first, make a plan, then work it, and truly lead others to their highest potential.
