Scientific Approaches to Literature in Learning Environments Michael Burke, Olivia Fialho, Sonia Zyngier, 2016-07-22

Scientific Approaches to Literature in Learning Environments is not just about what takes place in literary classrooms. Settings do have a strong influence on student learning both directly and indirectly. These spaces may include the home, the workplace, science centers, libraries, that is, contexts that entail diverse social, physical, psychological, and pedagogical variables that facilitate learning, for example, by grouping desks in specific ways, utilizing audio, visual, and digital technologies. Scientific Approaches to Literature in Learning Environments puts together a series of empirical research studies on the different locations of teaching and learning. These studies represent literary learning environments throughout the world, including Brazil, the USA, China, Canada, Japan, and several European countries such as the Netherlands, Ukraine, the UK, and Malta. The studies reported describe quantitative and/or qualitative research and cover pre-primary, primary, high school, college, university, and lifelong learning environments. They refresh the enigmatic ambience that often surrounds the teaching and learning that goes on in literary studies and offer transparent, useful, and replicable research and practice. Students and teachers alike are encouraged to take them and own them.

Sufism and American Literary Masters Mehdi Aminrazavi, 2014-10-15. This book reveals the rich but generally unknown influence of Sufism on nineteenth and early twentieth-century American literature. The translation of Persian poets such as Hafiz and Sa'di into English and the ongoing popularity of Omar Khayyam offered intriguing new spiritual perspectives to some of the major American literary figures. As editor Mehdi Aminrazavi notes, these Sufi influences have often been subsumed into a notion of Eastern, chiefly Indian, thought and not acknowledged as having Islamic roots. This work pays considerable attention to two giants of American literature, Ralph Waldo Emerson and Walt Whitman, who found much inspiration from the Sufi ideas.

they encountered Other canonical figures are also discussed including Mark Twain Herman Melville Henry David Thoreau and Henry Wadsworth Longfellow along with literary contemporaries who are lesser known today such as Paschal Beverly Randolph Thomas Lake Harris and Lawrence Oliphant
