African Youth in Contemporary Literature and Popular Culture Vivian Yenika-Agbaw, Linda Mhando, 2014-01-21 This book explores how African youth are depicted in contemporary literature and popular culture and discusses the different ways by which they attempt to construct personal and cultural identities through popular culture and social media outlets

The contributors approach the subject from an interdisciplinary perspective looking at images in children's and adolescent literature from Africa and the African diaspora from Nollywood and Hollywood movies from popular magazines and from youth cultures encountered directly through field experiences. The findings reveal that there are many stereotypes about Africa, African youth, and black cultures, and that African youth are aware of these. Since they juggle multiple identities shaped by their ethnicities, race, and religion, it is often a challenge for them to define themselves. As they also share a global youth culture that transcends these cultural markers, some take advantage of media outlets to voice their concerns and participate in political struggles. Others simply use these to promote their personal interests. Contributors ponder the challenges involved in constructing unique identities, offering ideas on how African youth are doing so successfully or not in different parts of the continent and the African diaspora, and thus offer new possibilities for youth studies.

Reclaiming English Language Arts Methods Courses Jory Brass, Allen Webb, 2014-09-04 Reclaiming English Language Arts Methods Courses showcases innovative work in teacher education that fosters teachers' capacities as reflective practitioners and public intellectuals, extends traditional boundaries of methods courses on teaching the English language arts literacy, children's and young adult literature, and embodies democratic and critical politics that go beyond the reductive economic aims and traditional classroom practices sanctioned by educational policies and corporate educational reforms. Featuring leading and emerging scholars in English language arts teacher education, each chapter provides rich and concrete examples of elementary and secondary methods courses rooted in contemporary research and theory, on-line resources, and honest appraisals of the possibilities, tensions, and limits of doing teacher education differently in a top-down time of standards-based education, high-stakes testing, teacher assessment, and neoliberal education reforms. This book offers important resources and support for teacher educators and graduate students to explore alternative visions for aligning university methods courses with current trends in English and cultural studies, critical sociocultural literacy, new literacies, and web 2.0 tools, and teaching the English language arts in multiethnic, multilingual, and underserved urban communities.

On the Shoulders of Giants Steven T. Bickmore, Shanetia P. Clark, 2019-12-30 This first book in a three-volume series celebrates and examines the work of four African American authors of young adult literature. They are Virginia Hamilton, Julius Lester, Walter Dean Myers, and Mildred D. Taylor; they serve as the foundation of young adult literature and provide robust stories that center and illuminate African American youth. In addition, this volume also examines the role of the Coretta Scott King Award in promoting access and visibility to authors and illustrators who shine a spotlight on African American youth and society. The chapter authors, librarians, and established and emerging scholars in the field of young adult literature survey the work of Hamilton, Lester, Myers, or Taylor; their accolades; and how audiences initially responded to their work. Each chapter highlights a single work and discusses how it might be taught, providing pre- and post-reading activities or, in some cases, individual, small group, or whole class activities. This volume is a resource for classroom teachers, teacher educators, reading specialists, librarians, and other educators who study research and read young adult literature This first volume supplements studies in the foundations of African American authors of young adult literature and explorations of critical works by these authors

Developing Trauma-Informed Teachers Ofelia Schepers, Megan Brennan, Philip E. Bernhardt, 2023-01-01 The vision and development of this edited text are driven by a deep desire to ensure that teacher candidates are thoughtfully prepared to more fully address students needs and create classroom environments that are safe for students and teachers Specifically this text will provide an understanding of how educator preparation programs are providing teacher candidates with the knowledge and skills to effectively utilize an asset based approach to foster resiliency skills that support P 12 students who have or are experiencing trauma This text considers how programs are developing equity focused content curriculum pedagogy to ensure teacher candidates can integrate trauma informed practices as well as develop their own resiliency skills This resource highlights important and relevant tools strategies and approaches for preparing future teachers to implement traumainformed practices within their classrooms In recent years much attention and resources focused on preparing teachers to more comprehensively address acknowledge and understand childhood trauma and the impact it has on students lives inside and outside of the classroom This text will be of interest to all those working in institutes of higher education alternative licensure programs and organizations public schools and districts involved with the preparation of teachers and or professional development of in service educators It has the potential to serve as a catalyst for teacher preparation programs to more intentionally integrate trauma informed practices in meaningful ways and contribute to a glaring gap within the literature focused on the systematic ways in which childhood trauma and resiliency development are being addressed in the preparation of teachers

Girls' Literacy Experiences in and Out of School Elaine O'Quinn, Elaine J. O'Quinn, 2013 Through thoughtful analysis of girls historical literacy experiences their contemporary reading and writing lives and trends in young adult literature this book sheds new light on how teachers can better understand and create classroom experiences that make girls visible both to themselves and to others Historically the status of girls has evoked much less research than that of boys Recently emerging scholastic and strategic study concerning the vulnerability of girls is adding a vital missing component to this continually emerging discourse Looking at many aspects of girls gendered lives this text considers the specific perspectives of the social and cultural constructions that script gender particularly as they apply to girls in our classrooms Prominent scholars in their respective fields examine the myriad forces that shape the lives of American girls from the earliest didactic records of manuals and books of conduct to current artifacts of contemporary culture By investigating both the scholarly literature on girls as well as the primary sources of a material culture the authors seek to unravel how adolescent girls learn and seek to compose identities By closely examining girls practices in which are embedded issues of class race ethnicity immigrant status and sexuality the text considers some of the values structures and trajectories that have come to define teenage girlhood Its distinctive contribution is to unpack some of the assumptions of girls in English classrooms and to critically examine their experiences as they try to fit preconceived norms while forming their own personhood Provided by publisher

Researching Interpretive Talk Around Literary Narrative Texts John Gordon,2020-08-25 Drawing on a multidisciplinary approach integrating insights from conversation analysis narrative analysis and narratology this book theorizes teaching around narrative prose in each level of education with a focus on a new framework of Pedagogic Literary Narration which emphasizes the practice of shared novel reading and the importance of the role of the teacher in mediating this practice With insights taken from a comprehensive set of transcripts taken from actual classrooms the volume focuses on the convention in native tongue literary study in which teachers and students read a novel shared over lessons combining periods of reading aloud with those of questioning and discussion In so doing Gordon seeks to extend existing methodologies from literary and social science research toward informing teaching practice in literary pedagogy and address the need for a theorization of literary pedagogy which considers the interrelationship between text in print and text through talk Transcripts are supported with comprehensive analyses to help further explicate the research methodology and provide guidance on implementing it in the classroom This book is a valuable resource for scholars in language and education literary studies narrative inquiry and education research

Poetry and Pedagogy across the Lifespan Sandra Lee Kleppe,Angela Sorby,2018-10-08 This book explores poetry and pedagogy in practice across the lifespan Poetry is directly linked to improved literacy creativity personal development emotional intelligence complex analytical thinking and social interaction all skills that are crucial in contemporary educational systems However a narrow focus on STEM subjects at the expense of the humanities has led educators to deprioritize poetry and to overlook its interdisciplinary multi modal potential The editors and contributors argue that poetry is not a luxury but a way to stimulate linguistic experiences that are formally rich and cognitively challenging To learn through poetry is not just to access information differently but also to forge new and different connections that can serve as reflective tools for lifelong learning This interdisciplinary book will be of value to teachers and students of poetry as well as scholars interested in literacy across the disciplines
